Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population      101 Great, Ready-to-Use Book Lists for Teens Nancy J. Keane, 2012-03-14 Building on the author's work in The Big Book of Teen Reading Lists this book provides 101 new and revised reading lists created in consultation with teachers and public librarians an invaluable resource for any educator who plans activities for children that involve using literature Nancy J Keane is the author of the award winning website Booktalks Quick and Simple nancykeane.com/booktalks as well as the creator of the open collaboration wiki ATN Book Lists With her latest book 101 Great Ready to Use Book Lists for Teens she provides another indispensable resource for librarians and teachers The lists in this book are the result of careful consultation with teachers and public librarians and from discussions on professional email lists These indispensable lists can be utilized in many ways for example as handouts to teachers as suggested reading to create book displays or as display posters in the library This collection will facilitate the creation of valuable reading lists to support the extended reading demands of today's teens      School Library Journal, 2009      Ruby Starr Deborah Lytton, 2017 When a new fifth grader Charlotte wants to turn the lunchtime book club The Unicorns into a drama club Ruby has to use her imagination and love of reading to save the day      Sensibility and Female Poetic Tradition, 1780-1860 Dr Claire Knowles, 2013-04-28 Arguing that the end of the eighteenth century witnessed the emergence of an important female poetic tradition Claire Knowles analyzes the poetry of several key women writing between 1780 and 1860 Knowles provides important context by demonstrating the influence of the Della Cruscan in exposing the constructed and performative nature of the trope of sensibility a revelation that was met with critical hostility by a literary culture that valorised sincerity This sets the stage for Charlotte Smith who pioneers an autobiographical approach to poetic production that places increased emphasis on the connection between the poet's physical body and her body of work Knowles shows the poets Susan Evance Letitia Elizabeth Landon and Elizabeth Barrett Browning advancing Smith's poetic strategy as they seek to elicit a powerful sympathetic response from readers by highlighting a connection between their actual suffering and the production of poetry From this environment a specific tradition in female poetry arises that is identifiable in the work of twentieth century writers like Sylvia Plath and continues to pertain today Alongside this new understanding of poetic tradition Knowles provides an innovative account of the central role of women writers to an emergent late eighteenth century mass literary culture and traces a crucial discursive shift that takes place in poetic production during this period She argues that the movement away from the passionate discourse of sensibility in the late eighteenth century to the more contained rhetoric of sentimentality in the early nineteenth had an enormous effect not only on female poets but also on British literary culture as a whole
