Ambrose, 2015-09-29 Kathryn Ambrose offers a new approach to the Woman Question in mid to late nineteenth century English German and Russian literature Using a methodological framework based on feminist theory and post structuralism she provides a re vision of canonical texts such as Jane Eyre Wuthering Heights Middlemarch Effi Briest Fathers and Children and Anna Karenina alongside lesser known works by Emily and Charlotte Bront George Eliot Theodor Storm Theodor Fontane Ivan Turgenev and Leo Tolstoy Her exploration of the semiotics of barriers as opposed to the established approach of the semiotics of space makes for a rewarding reading of this period of literature and establishes new cross cultural and literary connections between the three countries

Theology, Horror and Fiction Jonathan Greenaway, 2020-12-10 Longlisted for the 2022 International Gothic

Association's Allan Lloyd Smith Prize Surpassing scholarly discourse surrounding the emergent secularism of the 19th century Theology Horror and Fiction argues that the Victorian Gothic is a genre fascinated with the immaterial Through close readings of popular Gothic novels across the 19th century Frankenstein Wuthering Heights Dracula and The Picture of Dorian Gray among others Jonathan Greenaway demonstrates that to understand and read Gothic novels is to be drawn into the discourses of theology Despite the differences in time place and context that informed the writers of these stories the Gothic novel is irreducibly fascinated with religious and theological ideas and this angle has been often overlooked in broader scholarly investigations into the intersections between literature and religion Combining historical theological awareness with interventions into contemporary theology particularly around imaginative apologetics and theology and the arts Jonathan Greenaway offers the beginnings of a modern theology of the Gothic A Vain Talent? The Question of Female Artistry in the Life and Work of Anne Brontë Taten Shirley, 2025-02-04 The main goal of this anthology is to aid Bront scholars along with undergraduate and graduate students alike in their research of Anne Bront specifically in regards to the question of her artistry in her own life and the theme of artistry in her novel The Tenant of Wildfell Hall and her poetry While there have been numerous publications on the Bront sisters there is the least amount of scholarship on Anne Literary criticism of Anne is usually included within commentary on her sisters as a whole and Anne is always discussed the least in the works There are few if any anthologies on Anne's writing especially not one that focuses on artistry specifically This anthology seeks to reduce the disparity of scholarship on Anne compared to her sisters The chapters all focus on artistry in some aspect of her life or her writing The first chapter focuses on Anne's poetry and how it can be viewed as a therapeutic for her homesickness while at Thorp Green Chapter two examines the ways in which Anne Bront demonstrates that Agnes Grey's pedagogic craft is one steeped in virtue but punctuated by limited authority thus stressing the inherently artistic nature of education as aesthetic expression that ultimately remains subordinate to the power of individual autonomy The third chapter examines Helen Huntingdon through the medieval lens of chivalric domestic violence Chapter four discusses how Anne's artistry impacted the characters she wrote illustrating how Helen's career as an artist relies on the commercial prospects that painting permits to investigate the problems and disagreements that occur when a woman endeavors to construct a room of one's own outside the conventional societal circumstances The fifth chapter explores how Bront traces Helen Huntingdon's moral and emotional development through her art and how characters of both genders interact with that art and how the acts of production and interpretation serve as an important dimension of her social critique and refusal to conform to gendered expectations of her own art Then the sixth chapter examines Victorian women's artistic skills and their modest craft of sketching imaginary kingdoms and painting realistic landscapes and self portraits in Anne Bront's The Tenant of Wildfell Hall 1848 and in Charlotte Bront's Jane Eyre 1847 as the equivalents of unprofessional female writings expected in the nineteenth century The seventh chapter explores the use of art as a means of escape from an unvirtuous marriage in

The Tenant of Wildfell Hall Lastly the eighth chapter takes a closer look at why exactly Anne is the least known sister by contrasting the supernatural in Charlotte's Jane Eyre to the realism in Anne's The Tenant of Wildfell Hall World Literature and the Question of Genre in Colonial India Kedar Arun Kulkarni, 2022-05-30 World Literature and the Question of Genre in Colonial India describes the way Marathi literary culture entrenched in performative modes of production and reception saw the germination of a robust script centric dramatic culture owing to colonial networks of literary exchange and the newfound wide availability of print technology The author demonstrates the upheaval that literary culture underwent as a new class of literati emerged anthologists critics theatre makers publishers and translators These people participated in global conversations that left their mark on theory in the early twentieth century Reading through archives and ephemera Kedar Arun Kulkarni illustrates how literary cultures in colonised locales converged with and participated fully in key defining moments of world literature but also diverged from them to create simultaneously a unique literary modernity
