

1.1.6 Practice: Prewriting Exercise: Jane Eyre, Chapters 1-16

Thesis: Through the course of the book, Jane Eyre's detailed descriptions and perceptive observations have given readers the impression that she is a pessimist and a little bit spiritual, believing that there is "life beyond death"

1. "Afar, it offered a pale blank of mist and cloud; near a scene of wet lawn and storm-beat shrub, with ceaseless rain sweeping away wildly before a long and lamentable blast." (Page 7)

In this passage, Jane is providing us with a picture of the world around her that she perceives, and it is a description that is more pessimistic and cynical.

2. "All looked colder and darker in that visionary hollow than in reality; and the strange little figure there gazing at me, with a white face arms specking the gloom, and glittering eyes of fear moving where all else was still, had the effect of a real spirit: I thought like one of the tiny phantoms, half fairy, half imp..." (Page 18)

Throughout the course of the book, Jane makes a number of observations, and as a result, she comes out as a pessimist and cynic as a result of the descriptions that she provides. Because she has seen a ghost, we can conclude that both fiction and reality are simultaneously present.

3. "...that I saw the girl with who, I had conversed in the verandah - missed in disgrace by Miss Scatcherd from a history class, and sent to stand in the middle of the large schoolroom. The punishment seemed to me in a high degree ignominious, especially for so great girl she looked thirteen or upwards." (page 76)

Jane is able to recognize the differences between Miss Temple and Miss Scatcherd based on the sections that have been presented thus far. According to Jane, Miss Temple is pleasant and considerate, whereas Miss Scatcherd is cruel and appears to be unfair.
