The balance between the emphases on method and content is not everywhere the same and varies from system to system from school to school from classroom to classroom. This text has been developed over a period of years in response to a need for a new perspective on educational method. Under the influence of the curriculum movement the purposes of the school and the objectives of teaching have undergone serious revision. New content has been introduced to supplement rather than replace the old and a variety of methods are called for and teaching procedures must be adapted to the sought goals. This text seeks to provide the needed perspective and to bring a closer coordination between method and content.      Our Nation's Government Frank Abbott Magruder, Lashley Grey Harvey, 1930      American Government, with a Consideration of the Problems of Democracy Frank Abbott Magruder, 1923      State Manual of the Courses of Study for the High Schools of Oregon ... Oregon. Ten essays discuss federal democracy, the form of government of the United States. The first essay discusses the origins of American federalism. The second examines why we have a federal system, the functions federalism serves, and the consequences of federalism for the American political system. Federalism in the Constitution and constitutional law are treated in the third essay. The importance of cultural pluralism in American life and the role of American federalism in supporting pluralism are the foci of the fourth essay. The roles that the local community, the states, and political parties play in the federal system are examined in essays 5 6 and 7 respectively State local and professional roles in citizenship education are discussed in the eighth essay The ninth essay explores how high school U S history and government textbooks approach federalism The concluding essay describes resources on federalism that can be used in curriculum development at the secondary and college levels Many of the essays are followed by topics for further study and suggested readings for teachers RM
