Dude Lit Emily Hind, 2019-05-07 How did men become the stars of the Mexican intellectual scene Dude Lit examines the tricks of the trade and reveals that sometimes literary genius rests on privileges that men extend one another and that women permit The makings of the best writers have to do with superficial aspects like conformist wardrobes and unsmiling expressions and more complex techniques such as friendship networks prizewinners who become judges dropouts who become teachers and the key tactic of being allowed to shift roles from rule maker the civilizado to rule breaker the barbaro Certain writing habits also predict success with the high and hard category reserved for men s writing and even film directing In both film and literature critically respected artwork by men tends to rely on obscenity interpreted as originality negative topics viewed as serious and coolly inarticulate narratives about bullying understood as maximum literary achievement To build the case regarding rebellion as conformity Dude Lit contemplates a wide set of examples while always returning to three figures each born some two decades apart from the immediate predecessor Juan Rulfo with Pedro P ramo Jos Emilio Pacheco with Las batallas en el desierto and Guillermo Fadanelli with

Mis mujeres muertas as well as the range of his publications Why do we believe Mexican men are competent performers of the role of intellectual Dude Lit answers this question through a creative intersection of sources Drawing on interviews archival materials and critical readings this provocative book changes the conversation on literature and gendered performance

Feeling the Gaze Gail Bulman, 2022-08-25 Feeling the Gaze explores the visual elements in eight contemporary Argentine and Chilean theater performances Gail A Bulman shows how staged images can awaken spectators emotions to activate their intellect provoking nuanced and deep contemplation of social historical and political themes Ranging from simple props costumes body movements and spatial constructions to integrated media and digital images the aesthetic components in these pieces engage to forge multifaceted storytelling stimulate the public's relation to memory and create affective bonds that help build individual and collective social consciousness Recent innovations in Southern Cone theatre aesthetics have been shifting traditional performance spectator relationships and animating ideological discussions The various works presented here give readers a holistic understanding of the emerging prominence of visuality and affect as a vehicle for political advocacy in Latin American theatre and performance The book asks us to consider the formation of new spectator performance bonds as authors directors and theatre groups increasingly turn toward alternative settings for their work Lingering visual memories of the performances together with the feelings that the performative experience stirs up provide spectators with an enduring focal point through which to reflect on and judge what is beyond the performed scenes Staged live in the Southern Cone and internationally since 2014 these plays demonstrate the transgressive power of the visual to make spectators see feel and potentially act against injustices and violence This study offers comprehensive critical discussions of Teatro Banda's O Higgins un hombre en pedazos Teatro Ni o Proletario's Fulgor Mario Luiggi y sus fantasmas's Manual de carro a Agustín León Pruzzo's En la sombra de la cúpula Teatro la Mar's Los millonarios Claudio Tolcachir's Prximo Sergio Blanco's Tebas Land and Lola Arias's Doble de Riesgo
