Inviting Transformation Presentational Speaking For A Changing World:

Inviting Transformation Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, 2019-01-03 The fourth edition of Inviting Transformation continues to offer an innovative approach to presentational speaking at a very reasonable price. The authors introduce readers to invitational rhetoric, teaching speakers to clarify ideas and to work to achieve understanding for all participants in an interaction. A primary goal of presentational speaking is to create an environment in which growth and change can occur for both the audience and the speaker. The text highlights four external conditions affecting transformational environments: safety, openness, freedom, and value, honoring the intrinsic worth of all individuals. To reflect respect for the diversity of the world, Sonja Foss and Karen Foss include options from many speaking traditions and practices to foster creativity. Discussions of all the processes of presenting, selecting a speaking goal, organizing ideas, elaborating on ideas, and delivering the presentation emphasize inclusive speaking practices. Sample presentations provide clear and contemporary examples of the best invitational speaking practices. The authors recognize readers as competent communicators and encourage them to think about and systematize their approaches to presentational speaking. The exceptionally accessible writing style is an aid to readers in thinking through strategies for meeting their interactional goals. Readers learn to design and deliver effective presentations for any speaking situation.

Inviting Transformation Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, 1994 This book discusses presentational speaking in diverse contexts and settings. The primary purpose of such speaking is to invite growth and change for both speaker and audience.

Preaching as Poetry Paul Scott Wilson, 2014-08-19 It is tempting for preachers in this digital age of plurality and diversity to offer quick sound bites and PowerPoint style presentations. These tend to invite a yes or no response as in mathematical equations. But if we are to reach Christians across the theological spectrum and invite non-Christians to seriously consider our faith, we must take a different approach. What is needed is greater attention to poetry and images meant to communicate the beauty of the faith and the wonder and mystery of God in everyday life. We must communicate the unity of our message of faith, the divine as truth and justice, and healing as expressions of God. Preaching as poetry, theopoetic preaching, allows for the bold imagery of scripture and the gentle invitation of art. Sermons can no longer always be neatly tied up perfectly linear with complete answers to every question. In Preaching as Poetry, Paul Scott Wilson teaches why this new approach is necessary today and demonstrates with multiple examples how it works in real sermons. He skillfully guides the reader to incorporate the classical values of beauty, goodness, and truth in every sermon and in ways that connect with congregants and listeners today.

A Practical Guide to Ethics Rita Manning, Scott R. Stroud, 2018-05-04 This essential new text is designed for courses in contemporary moral issues, applied ethics, and leadership. Emphasizing personal choice in the study of ethics, the authors take the reader on a journey of self-discovery rather than a mere academic survey of the field of ethics. A Practical Guide to Ethics: Living and Leading with Integrity helps students develop their skills in ethical decision making and put those decisions into effective practice. Its unique focus on leadership, especially the moral dimensions of understanding one's own values teaches students to understand and through dialog and negotiation communicate their own beliefs as a step to building coalitions with those who may hold different views It is also distinctive in combining ethical theory with both multicultural ethics Confucianism Hinduism Islam feminism and a practical orientation to moral decision making and leadership

Theories of Human Communication Stephen W. Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, 2010-11-04 For almost four decades Theories of Human Communication has offered readers an engaging and informative guide to the rich array of theories that influence our understanding of communication The first edition broke new ground with its comprehensive discussion of theorizing by communication scholars Since that time the field has expanded tremendously from a small cluster of explanations and relatively unconnected theories to a huge body of work from numerous traditions or communities of scholarship The tenth edition covers both classic and recent theories created by communication scholars and informed by scholars in other fields Littlejohn and Foss organize communication theory around two intersecting elements contexts and theoretical traditions and emphasize the connections trajectories and relationships among the theories They provide clear accessible explanations that synthesize without oversimplifying Their extensive use of examples presents theorizing as a natural process and invites readers to reflect on their own experiences and to become active participants in continuing the conversation In addition to the authors lucid explanations of theories the text includes From the Source boxes in which the theorists share their perspectives on communication The extensive bibliography almost 1 200 entries and chapter citations are invaluable resources for more in depth study

Skills for Academic and Career Success Dian Carroll, 2013-09-16 Skills for Academic and Career Success focuses on the essential skills you need to be successful in your studies and in your future career This original textbook aims to improve and enhance your study skills it also introduces some important aspects of business and professional communication An integrated approach is used to bring together these key fields of academic skills and business communication competency The emphasis throughout the book is on practical applied learning It has been developed to complement Australian tertiary education curricula in the areas of study skills and professional communication and is designed to enhance learning outcomes for students within the Australian and Pan Asian context
