The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004-2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France's move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women's studies and history will find this book particularly useful

Literature, Pedagogy, and Curriculum in Secondary Education M. Martin Guiney, 2017-05-31 This book argues for the importance of literature studies using the historical debate between the disinterested disciplines art for art's sake and utilitarian or productive disciplines Forgoing the traditional argument that literature is a unique spiritual resource as well as the utilitarian thought that literary pedagogy promotes skills that are relevant to a post industrial economy Guiney suggests that literary pedagogy must enable mutual access between the classroom and the outside world It must recognize the need for every human being to become a conscious producer of culture rather than a consumer through an active process of literary reading and writing Using the history of French curricular reforms as a case study for his analysis Guiney provides a contextualized redefinition of literature s social value
