

Example Literary Essay: The Giver by Lois Lowry

Example Introduction Paragraph:

“The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.” This quote by Marcel Proust speaks of discovering what’s right in front of you by seeing it differently, with “new eyes.” The main character, Jonas, in Lois Lowry’s The Giver goes through a similar experience when he discovers his “Capacity to See Beyond.” Jonas begins to see his Community differently, with an awareness or mindfulness that most people in the Community have lacked. Mindfulness, in fact, is one of central themes in The Giver. Although the book begins with what seems to be a perfect place, it turns out that the people in the Community are living shallow and superficial lives. As Jonas begins his work as the Receiver of Memories, he gains wisdom and through that wisdom, learns that in protecting the Community from the memories, their lives have lacked feeling and understanding. In the end, Jonas learns to value his new way of seeing and chooses to risk everything to restore mindfulness and wisdom to everyone in the Community.

Example Body Paragraph for First Argument (Main Point #1):

The people in Jonas’s Community share their feelings with family members in their dwellings each evening. However, the feelings they share are merely surface feelings shared by mindless people numbly going about their day, shallow and superficial. For example, when Lily expressed anger over the incident at the park with the boy from another community who did not follow the rules, it was not truly anger. Instead, Jonas realized, she felt “impatience and exasperation” (pages protective mothers embittered mothers devoted daughters a new sense of the richness of Japanese women's experience a new appreciation for feelings too long submerged The New York Times Book Review Crisis and Form in the Later Writing of Ingeborg Bachmann Áine McMurtry, 2012 Ingeborg Bachmann 1927-73 one of the most acclaimed German language poets of the post-war period famously turned away from the lyric during the 1960s Publicly declaring that she had stopped writing poetry Bachmann began work on the prose Todesarten cycle that would dominate the last decade of her life During a period of personal breakdown in the 1960s however she privately continued to write in verse and the publication of selected drafts in 2000 threw new light on her compositional methods in this period As the most extensive study to date of the poetic drafts this monograph leads away from the polemic that surrounded their publication to establish the fragmentary texts as an experimental stage of writing that proved formally and thematically significant for later published prose works Bridging the genre gap of much Bachmann scholarship McMurtry illuminates the development of a reflexive mode where sophisticated aesthetic strategies enable the oblique expression of cultural critique In McMurtry is Lecturer in German at Durham University

Narrativity, Coherence and Literariness Eva Sabine Wagner, 2020-06-08 The search for the defining qualities of narrative has produced an expansive range of definitions which largely unconnected with each other obscure the notion of narrativity rather than clarifying it The first part of this study remedies this shortcoming by developing a graded macro model of narrativity which serves three aims Firstly it provides a structured overview of the field of narrative elements and processes Secondly it facilitates the classification of narratological approaches by locating them on different stages of narrativity Finally it focuses attention on narrative dynamics as interpretative processes by which readers seek to produce narrative coherence The second part of this study identifies three different narrative dynamics which characterise Laclos's Dangerous Connections Kafka's Castle and Toussaint's novels Wagner bases her analyses of these dynamics not only on the texts themselves but also on the ways in which literary scholars imbue the texts with narrative coherence This book provides a long overdue systematisation of the jumbled field of theories of narrativity and opens new perspectives on the difficult relationship between narrative theory and interpretation

György Lukács and the Literary Pretext Eva L. Corredor, 1987 This volume is an introduction to those works of György Lukács that have established him as a classic authority in literary criticism his pre-Marxist The History of the Evolution of Modern Drama 1911 still not available in English which Eva Corredor analyzes in the original Hungarian text and from which she provides extensive quotations in English his Kantian collection of essays Soul and Form 1910 his Hegelian The Theory of the Novel 1920 and his first Marxist work History and Class Consciousness 1923 which best characterizes the Hungarian philosopher's problematic position between East and West Lukács's Marxist theories are studied in the texts written during his exile in Stalinist Russia but published much later Studies in European Realism 1950 The Historical Novel 1955 and Realism in Our Time 1957 The approach to Lukács's work is both selective in the sense that the author chooses to introduce Lukács's literary theories with a focus on his views of French literature but also global in that she integrates these theories in the totality of his intellectual development At each phase the true motive of Luk cs s interest in literature is revealed as a pretext to study reality The detailed biographical data up to date critical bibliography and helpful index contribute to the overall value of this work as a challenging and rewarding source of information on Gy rgy Luk cs s theories of literature 2009 Novel & Short Story Writer's Market - Articles Editors Of Writers Digest Books,2008-07-01 For 28 years Novel Short Story Writer s Market has been the only resource of its kind exclusively for fiction writers Covering all genres from romance to mystery to horror and more this resource helps you prepare your submissions and sell your work This must have guide includes listings for over 1 300 book publishers magazines literary agents writing contests and conferences each containing current contact information editorial needs schedules and guidelines that save you time and take the guesswork out of the submission process With more than 100 pages of listings for literary journals alone and another 100 pages of book publishers plus special sections dedicated to the genres of romance mystery thriller speculative fiction and comics graphic novels the 2009 edition of this essential resource is your key to successfully selling your fiction The Literature Workshop Sheridan D.
