Office Sheila Liming, 2020-11-12 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things From its origins in the late 19th century to its decline in the 21st Sheila Liming's Office narrates a cultural history of a place that has arguably been the primary site of labor in the postmodern economy During the post war decades of the 20th century the office rose to prominence in culture achieving an iconic status that is reflected in television film literature and throughout the history of advertising Most people are well versed in the clich's of office culture despite evidence that an increasing number of us no longer work in offices With the development of computing technology in the 1980s and 90s the office underwent many changes Microsoft debuted its suite of multitasking applications known as Microsoft Office in 1989 firing the first shot in the war for the office's survival This book therefore poses the question how did culture become organized around the idea of the office and how will it change if the office become extinct Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic Great Leaders Equal Great Schools Autumn Cyprès, 2013-01-01 The networks of Tennessee politicians school leaders and academics are rife with significant contributors to the national fabric of educational reform This cadre includes Former White House Chief of Staff Howard Baker United States Senator Bill Frist currently Chairman of the Tennessee State Collaborative on Reforming Education former United States Secretary of Education Lamar Alexander currently United States Senator and Conference Chair of the Republican Party and current Governor Bill Haslam This network has deep current ties to The University of Tennessee the Knoxville area and school systems across the state of Tennessee The Center for Educational Leadership is a highly funded highly visible model for education reform throughout the state of Tennessee This 3 book series will serve as a calling card for all activities that The Center for Educational Leadership is involved in around the state of Tennessee and the United States This includes all school leadership summits for policy makers practitioners scholars and legislators It represents the shared vision and commitment of educational leaders politicians educational reformers and legislators This book will be distributed to school leaders professional development coaches teacher unions scholars at several Tennessee institutions of higher education and members of the Tennessee legislature and Department of Education The audience for this series is primarily school leaders and scholars who are launching and designing new programs or revising and strengthening existing programs However those who are discussing policy at the local state and national level would be interested in the information given within these pages as it relates clearly to their work in educational leadership Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M. Bohm, Gavin Lee, 2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016 Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted The Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues 4 The Death Penalty's Administration and 5 The Death Penalty's Consequences This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies Some further observations concerning the place, and manner, and time of burial Joseph Bingham, 1878 Bulletin of the International Labour Office International Labour Office, 1907 Vol 7 1912 contains as a supplement the Resolutions of the VIIth delegates meeting of the International Association for labour legislation Office Management Series ,1929 The Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1900 Christian Advocate ,1911 Transit Journal ,1907 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal, 1918 Municipal Journal and Public Works, 1912 The Irish Law Times and Solicitors' Journal ,1904 The Nation and Athenæum ,1928 Modeling the Preference for Telecommuting Patricia L.
