Invisible Romans By Robert Knapp:

Invisible Romans Robert Knapp, 2011-10-24 Robert Knapp brings to light the laboring men housewives prostitutes freedmen slaves soldiers and gladiators who formed the backbone of the ancient Roman world and the outlaws and pirates who lay beyond it The lives of these invisible Romans emerge from graffiti incantations fables astrological writings and even the New Testament

Invisible Romans Robert C. Knapp, Masculinities in the Gospel of Matthew Kendra A. Mohn, 2024-02-28 In Masculinities in the Gospel of Matthew Joseph John Peter and Judas Kendra A Mohn examines the masculinity of four figures in Matthew's Gospel in light of ancient understandings of masculinity exemplified by Roman emperors and emulated by figures such as Herod the Great and Herod Antipas Utilizing three criteria common to elite Roman hegemonic expressions of masculinity wealth divine service and dominating control over self and others Mohn argues that the nonelites represented by the New Testament texts negotiated ancient expectations of masculinity in a variety of ways that both subverted and upheld Roman imperial ideals This response to dominant masculinity marked by hegemony has important implications for the understanding of critical concepts such as discipleship and leadership as well as the expectations for masculinity expressed in contemporary religious contexts

Order and (Dis)order in the First Christian Century F. Gerald Downing, 2013-08-01 Articulate first century Mediterranean society Jewish and Christian included expressly favoured harmonious order in society in individuals in communication and in thought Its common basis was the patriarchal family the rule of law rational self control and rational thought Yet there was also resistance to oppressive and unjust order in all spheres and while law could be held educative yet there were substantial first century critiques of law not just Paul's and awareness that judicial procedures could be chaotic and biased Strands of such dissidence appear in Jesus and in Paul with significant relevance for any understanding of the early Christian movement's and contemporary Judaism's in Graeco Roman context but also with important implications for any practical reflections and application

Women of Ancient Rome Lynda Telford, 2023-04-15 The women of Ancient Rome were obliged to maintain the Mos maiorum the established order of things Romulus himself was believed to have devised the almost indissoluble marriage rite the Confarreatio which put a wife under the absolute power of her husband She could not divorce him but he could divorce her

The Dawn of Christianity Robert C. Knapp, 2017 Exploring the origins of Christianity this book looks at why it was that people first in Judea and then in the Roman and Greek Mediterranean world became susceptible to the new religion Robert Knapp looks for answers in a wide ranging exploration of religion and everyday life from 200 BC to the end of the first century Survival honour and wellbeing were the chief preoccupations of Jews and polytheists alike In both cases the author shows people turned first to supernatural powers According to need season and place polytheists consulted and placated vast constellations of gods while the Jews worshipped and contended with one almighty and jealous deity Professor Knapp considers why any Jew or polytheist would voluntarily dispense with a well tried way of dealing with the supernatural and trade it in for a new model What was it about the new religion that led people to change beliefs they had held for millennia and which in turn within four centuries of the birth of its messiah led it to transform the western world His conclusions are as convincing as they are sometimes surprising

Social Interactions and Status Markers in the Roman World George Cupcea, Rada Varga, 2018 Proceedings from the People of the Ancient World conference held in Cluj Napoca Romania in 2016 Ten papers encompass diverse approaches to Roman provincial populations and the corresponding case studies highlight the multi faceted character of Roman society
