La Lune Domaha:

From Surrealism to Less-exquisite Cadavers Michelle Emanuel, 2006 Les nouveaux mystères de Paris 1954 1959 Leo Malet's fifteen novel detective series inspired by Eugène Sue's nineteenth century feuilleton almost achieved the goal of setting a mystery in each of the twenty Parisian arrondissements with Nestor Burma at the center of the action In Burma the detective de choc first introduced in 1943's 120 rue de la gare Malet considered the father of the French roman noir creates a cultural hybrid bringing literary references and surrealist techniques to a criminal milieu Michelle Emanuel's groundbreaking study is particularly insightful in its treatment of Malet as a pioneer within the literary genre of the French roman noir while making sure to also focus on his surrealist roots Against the archetypes of Simenon's Maigret and Christie's Poirot Burma is brash and streetwise peppering his speech with colorful and evocative slang As the reader's tour guide Burma highlights Paris's forgotten past while providing insight to the Paris of his present referencing both popular culture and contemporary issues Malet's innovation of setting a noir narrative in France serves as a catalyst for further change in the policier genre in France including his contemporary Jean Amila the neo polar of Jean Patrick Manchette and the historical roman noir of Didier Daeninckx The Pleasures of Crime David Platten, 2011-12 For 150 years the French public and literati have enjoyed a love affair with crime fiction This book investigates the nature of this relationship and how through periods of dramatic social and political change in France it has flourished It challenges the conventional view of a popular genre feeding a niche market depicting crime fiction instead as a field of creative endeavour which has gradually matured into one of considerable literary fertility By inviting us to share secrets and crack codes creating suspense and at times not shirking from presenting horrific events in graphic language the crime story brings into play the intellect and emotions of its readership This book explores both this intrinsic literary value of the crime novel and its extrinsic witness to historical events and cultural trends arguing that these apparently distinct aspects are in fact dynamic interrelated parts of the same whole This blend of cultural history with literary analysis allows for the discussion of themes such as politics memory the urban environment and youth cultures mixed with case studies of major French crime writers including Gaston Leroux Georges Simenon Jean Patrick Manchette Daniel Pennac and Fred Vargas Violent Histories David Gascoigne, 2007 This series aims to publish new research monographs and essays into relationships and interactions between culture and identity The notions of both culture and identity are broadly conceived interdisciplinary and theoretically diverse approaches are encouraged in a series designed to promote a better understanding of the processes of identity formation both individual and collective
