A Delicate Task Catherine McTamaney Ed.D.,2012-07-26 There are despite the loneliness of our classrooms and the heartache of having been called to teach others on the path with us Teaching is hard Teaching in a Montessori path is even more so Montessorians are asked to give up so much of ourselves to make ourselves humble and lowly before the child to be servants to be scientists to be saints We often let ourselves down There it is then We will let ourselves down But there are others on the path with us We can lean on each other We can walk in each other's footsteps Sometimes we're at the front of the path Sometimes we're following another traveler Sometimes we're resting Sometimes the laughter of our group is so cacophonous that we forget how tired our feet are Sometimes we're so far ahead or behind that we can't even see each other anymore But we're not alone We are each other's navigational stars Montessori's words across generations guide us Our own words whispered in each other's ears or passed in notes or published in books they give us guidance too They remind us on the hardest days that we're not alone We are not alone We share certain tendencies certain traits common among humanity common across decades We are working in common toward a perfection we may never individually see But we're on the path And we're not alone

Aid to Life, Montessori Beyond the Classroom Susan Mayclin Stephenson, 2021-03 In this book the author shares stories based on fifty years of Montessori work in thirty countries first as a teacher of children from 2-13 in Montessori schools then discovering new ways to use Montessori principles in a variety of situations all aimed at inspiring and providing practical ideas to parents and teachers today Here are some examples of her stories preparing a group of elementary students in the Virgin Islands to run the class on their own learning how to teach Montessori with no Montessori materials in a private girls school in Peru applying Montessori in everyday situations by means of a Q and A newspaper column twenty topics including self-esteem preparing the home for a newborn multiple intelligences teenage troubles homeschooling and more helping poor village children in a boarding school in Kathmandu and blind children in Tibet meeting with five other Montessori teachers doctors philosophers educators scientists and the Dalai Lama in Sikkim to solve the country's educational problems visiting a school where Montessori helps severely disabled children and young adults in Russia initiating a first Year Montessori project in an orphanage helping village schools and lecturing on the first Montessori 3-6 training course in Morocco Susan shares two stories from a meeting of Educateurs sans Frontières in Thailand Montessori help for mothers of babies born in prison and for elders living with dementia Enjoy the chapter describing the author and her husband reliving the book Eloise in Paris dictated by a four-year-old used in the language area of some Montessori teacher training courses and a detailed observation of a day in an authentic Montessori 3-6 class that is sure to inspire many teachers Near the end of the book the author shares some of the solutions based on consultations with schools and conversations with parents today due to the unique situation of remote learning due to the pandemic Age 0-6 Rather than recommending setting up mini Montessori areas in the home which can cause even more stress for families she gives suggestions on handling frustration and limited setting welcoming the child into the daily work and activities of the family understanding the value of protecting concentration providing opportunities for children to be helpful and feel needed and how to share the family ethics morals and even religions in age appropriate ways Age 6-18 She explains the Montessori concepts of cosmic education and beginning the search for one's cosmic task so important at this age She discusses homeschooling the reasons and variety of methods and her own experience of guiding her son's self-chosen twelve years of homeschooling without materials or grades but following interests. The last chapter, Stages of Development, the author explains how a Montessori education is completely different for birth, 3, 3-6, 6-12, and 12-18. Rather than beginning with a desired standard academic curriculum, the learning is based on the needs and tendencies of human beings at different ages and planes or stages of development. As a result, education becomes a joy. There are practical examples for parents and teachers. In the Resources and Books section, there are links to many of the projects described in the book, such as the school for the poor in Nepal. There are links to Montessori initiatives such as Educateurs sans Frontières she experienced in Thailand, Montessori for Dementia, the Montessori course for teaching adolescents, Montessori sports. There are also details about the author's seven previous books, each one presenting Montessori in very practical examples from a unique perspective. Following Montessori principles can help anyone to dig deep and discover their inborn gifts to gain the experience and confidence to push boundaries to develop creative problem-solving abilities, resilience, and compassion.
