Spaces of the Living and the Dead Catherine E. Karkov, Kelley M. Wickham-Crowley, Bailey K. Young, 1999 Initially concerned exclusively with death and burial this volume grew to encompass the role of the living and the towns they inhabit The ten papers take an informal relaxed tone seeking to inspire discussion rather than provide a definitive summary John Bradley s candid and witty Urbanization in Early Medieval Ireland stands out especially He points out that history is not just about the past it is very much about the present Spaces of the Living and the Dead adeptly interweaves both examining historical facts and our modern biases toward them Latin Literatures of Medieval and Early Modern Times in Europe and Beyond Francesco Stella, Lucie Doležalová, Danuta Shanzer, 2024-07-15 The textual heritage of Medieval Latin is one of the greatest reservoirs of human culture Repertories list more than 16 000 authors from about 20 modern countries Until now there has been no introduction to this world in its full geographical extension Forty contributors fill this gap by adopting a new perspective making available to specialists but also to the interested public new materials and insights The project presents an overview of Medieval and post medieval Latin Literatures as a global phenomenon including both Europe and extra European regions It serves as an introduction to medieval Latin s complex and multi layered culture whose attraction has been underestimated until now Traditional overviews mostly flatten specificities yet in many countries medieval Latin literature is still studied with reference to the local history Thus the first section presents 20 regional surveys including chapters on authors and works of Latin Literature in Eastern Central and Northern Europe Africa the Middle East Asia and the Americas Subsequent chapters highlight shared patterns of circulation adaptation and exchange and underline the appeal of medieval intermediality as evidenced in manuscripts maps scientific treatises and iconotexts and its performativity in narrations theatre sermons and music The last section deals with literary interfaces that is motifs or characters that exemplify the double sided or the long term transformations of medieval Latin mythologemes in vernacular culture both early modern and modern such as the legends about King Arthur Faust and Hamlet Grégoire le Grand Jacques Fontaine, Robert Gillet, Stan Pellistrandi, 1986
