The South African Response to COVID-19 Pieter Fourie, Guy Lamb, 2023-03-28

This book analyses the first two years of South Africa s response to the COVID 19 epidemic from its emergence in early 2020 Drawing on the perspectives of a range of public health experts economists and other social scientists and development practitioners this book argues that understanding this early response will be essential to moderate and improve future policy thinking around health governance and epidemic readiness This book provides a systemic analysis of not only the epidemiological progression of COVID 19 in South Africa but also the socio political factors that will be key in determining the future of the country as a whole including health system challenges socio economic disparities and inequalities and variable often contradictory and tardy policy responses Overall this book exposes Manichean thinking and the spurious policy dichotomies that pitch public health against human rights economic recovery against viral vector control and science against ideology with lessons not just for South Africa but also for elsewhere on the African continent and beyond This book will be perfect for researchers and practitioners across Public Health Health Policy and Global Health as well as those with an interest in South African politics and development more generally The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

International Perspectives on Public Transport Responses to COVID-19 Takeru Shibayama,Guenter Emberger,2024-07-30 International Perspectives on Public Transport Responses to COVID 19International Perspectives on Public Transport Responses to COVID 19 examines the pandemic response of transport policymakers around the world and analyzes what can be learned to prepare for the next epidemic or any other critical event that threatens transportation services It combines theoretical analysis with a compendium of country focused case studies to provide scientific evidence and decision making support for the actions that each transportation official must make going forward This book begins with Part 1 a thematic and comparative section on response and recovery efforts It provides insights into topics such as mitigation strategies and preparedness of the public transport sector to epidemics prior to COVID 19 responses during the COVID 19 pandemic and recovery from it public transport services in urban and rural areas during the pandemic and social or physical distancing and any other protective on board measures Part 2 then offers a set of international case studies wherein various authors from different countries review their governments and operators responses Each chapter is guided by a set of common research questions based on disaster mitigation theory Part 3 then focuses on learnings and comparative analysis from the COVID 19 pandemic for future epidemic mitigation strategies in the public transport sector Governments public transport authorities and operators as well as students and researchers will learn what has and has not worked well during the COVID 19 pandemic These insights will help them to mitigate prepare respond and recover from unexpected disruptive events like pandemics in the future Combines case studies country specific chapters and analysis thematic chapters to enable a deeper understanding and provide different perspectives Puts a clear focus on public transport the most affected mode of transport amid the COVID 19 pandemic Analyzes the COVID 19 responses in the public transport sector through the perspective of disaster management

Africa's Pulse, No. 23, October 2021 Albert G. Zeufack,Cesar Calderon,Megumi Kubota,Alain Ntumba Kabundi,Vijdan Korman,Catalina Cantu Canales,2021-10-06 The economic impact of the COVID 19 pandemic in Sub Saharan Africa has been severe however countries are weathering the storm so far Real GDP is estimated to contract by 2 0 percent in 2020 close to the lower bound of the forecast range in April 2020 and less than the contraction in advanced economies and other emerging markets and developing economies excluding China Available data from the second half of 2020 point to rebound in economic activity that explain why the contraction in the region was in the lower bound of the forecasts It reflected a slower spread of the virus and lower COVID 19 related mortality in the region strong agricultural growth and a faster than expected recovery in commodity prices Economic activity in the region is expected to rise to a range between 2.3 and 3.4 percent in 2021 depending on the policy measures adopted by countries and the international community However prospects for a slow vaccine rollout the resurgence of pandemic and limited scope for additional fiscal support could hold back the recovery in the region Policies to support the economy in the near term should be complemented by structural reforms that encourage sustained investment create jobs and enhance competitiveness Reducing the countries debt burden will release resources for public investment in areas such as education health and infrastructure Investments in human capital will help lower the risk of long lasting damage from the pandemic which may become apparent over the longer term and can enhance competitiveness and productivity The next twelve months will be a critical period for leveraging the African Continental Free Trade Area in order to deepen African countries integration into regional and global value chains Finally reforms that address digital infrastructure gaps and make the digital economy more inclusive ensuring affordability but also building skills for all segments of society are critical to improve connectivity boost digital technology adoption and generate more and better jobs for men and women

COVID-19 and the Media in Sub-Saharan Africa Carol Azungi Dralega, Angella Napakol, 2022-09-19 This critical research collection focuses on Eastern and Southern Africa providing timely and valuable insights and reflections around the changes and stabilities within media ecosystems caused by the novel Covid 19 crises
