Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03 Portuguese Literature and the Environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from Medieval times to the present From the centrality of nature in Medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world More recently the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social political or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non humans The book is organized into three sections The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy historiography culture and environmental issues The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the environment from the Renaissance to 1900 The final section analyzes the connection between literary movements or specific authors and environmental change from 1900 to today Scholars of literature Latin American studies literature and environmental studies will find this volume especially useful

Cultural Labour and Contemporary World Literatures

in Portuguese Carlos Garrido Castellano, 2024-11-25 This book examines the evolution of contemporary narrative in Portuguese from the point of view of cultural labour The main objective of this volume is to analyse the panorama of contemporary literary fiction in Portuguese under the prism of the economization of cultural creativity and the expansion of neoliberal understanding of creative subjectivity and self realization Assuming that neoliberalism still constitutes a haunting presence that becomes present in ways that are far from universal and homogeneous and that are shaped by coloniality this book expands the debates on cultural labour and literary materialisms beyond European and North American contexts Dealing with contemporary literary production from Brazil Portugal Angola Mozambique Cabo Verde Macau Canada and Goa the volume also tries to reimagine issues of cultural labour and the expansion of artistic modes of self definition from the point of view of contemporary literary production in Portuguese

On Saramago, 2001 For many decades Jos Saramago has been a staunch defender of the role of literature to both serve and be perceived as public discourse When in October 1998 he became the first Portuguese language author to be awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature his conviction was supported by the assurance that at any rate this particular writer's literary discourse was guaranteed to be widely and globally publicized If as Wlad Godzich has claimed the severely limited possibility of public discourse in the contemporary world is compensated by the ever multiplying variety of ways to publicize discourses Workshop Saramago has taken full advantage of the opportunities offered in this respect by the Nobel prize as probably the most effective institutionalized instrument of publicity that high literary discourse which is produced worldwide has at its annual disposal His international visibility greatly amplified Saramago could be seen in the last two years shuttling the globe and making globally publicized statements on behalf of the many political causes that have attracted his attention and support Publisher's description
