Journals of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd 2014-2018 Compilation, 2020-01-27 This volume compiles the last five years of the Journal including art from children in the atria and reflections on catechetical development The Good Shepherd and the Child: A Joyful Journey Sofia Cavalletti, Patricia Coulter, Gianna Gobbi, Silvana Quattrocchi Montanaro, M.D., Rebekah Rojcewicz, 2014-07-29 Now revised and updated this foundational text explores the development of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd since its origins Life in the Vine Rebekah Francisco Rojcewicz, 2021-01-06 This book intended to serve as a companion to The Good Shepherd and the Child A Joyful Journey documents the years of work of catechists with children ages six to twelve in the Level 2 atrium The book draws on the richest mysteries of our faith as recalled with the younger child ages three to six and how these mysteries unfold and expand for the older child From Easter to Holy Week Laura E. Moore, 2019-10-07 The story of the twentieth century Liturgical Movement is more than anything else about the rediscovery and renewed understanding of the fundamental reality of the Paschal Mystery and of the Paschal identity of the Church This identity is expressed and celebrated whenever the Body of Christ every member welcomes new members in the waters of baptism and feasts with them in the Eucharist especially as these are celebrated during Holy Week This book explores this rediscovery first in the Roman Catholic Church and then in the Episcopal Church and other Churches of the Anglican Communion and looks in particular at how both grassroots and official work played a role in renewing and restoring the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week The Gifts They Bring Amy Lindeman Allen, 2023-08-29 Children are often touted as the future of the church but their role in the church today is less frequently considered In The Gifts They Bring New Testament scholar pastor and mother Amy Lindeman Allen challenges readers to reconsider the way we view children in the church focusing on our present life together as a diverse inclusive community of faith To do this Lindeman Allen looks to the past rereading familiar Gospel accounts with an eye to the experience of childhood in Jesus world highlighting both the gifts that children brought to Jesus ministry as well as those they received from him Through this lens she invites readers to reconsider the age and relationship of well known and lesser known Bible characters including the Bethlehem shepherds James and John the two disciples who followed Jesus alongside their mother and the young boy whose lunch Jesus used to feed the five thousand In the process Lindeman Allen reconsiders ministry with children today moving away from a transactional model of imparting wisdom to children to a dialogical model of learning and serving together with children Each chapter reads a different Gospel story in conversation with experiences of real children in the church today bringing into focus the varied gifts that children bring in a practice of inclusive ministry These gifts include participation proclamation advocacy listening sharing and partnership Readers will grow more attuned to recognize the gifts that we each bring children and adults as essential members working together as one community in the body of Christ and so to share in the gift of Christ together Opening Doors of Welcome and Justice to Parishioners with Disabilities , 2003 The

Religious Potential of the Child Sofia Cavalletti,1992 Publisher s description This classic book describes an experience with children from ages three to six an experience of adults and children dwelling together in the mystery of God Known as the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd this way of religious formation is profoundly biblical and sacramental and it is at the same time deeply respectful of the nature of young children who make their way to God in freedom and joy The Religious Potential of the Child is not a how to book complete with lesson plans and material ideas Instead it offers a glimpse into the religious life of the atrium a specially prepared place for children to live out their silent request Help me come closer to God by myself Here we can see the child s spiritual capabilities and perhaps even find in our own souls the child long burdened with religious information
