Conferences Jane M. Bailey, Thomas R. Guskey, 2001. Students and parents benefit from this powerful communication tool. Jane Bailey and Thomas Guskey, leaders in the field of student assessment, address a nagging issue for both beginning and veteran teachers: how to effectively communicate to parents the learning progress of their children. Every teacher knows the sinking feeling of facing a sea of anxious parents with limited time for in depth discussion. Now there is a way for students to take responsibility in communicating their progress and for parents to get the satisfaction they deserve. In this new approach the teacher serves as facilitator as students lead their parents through a discussion of their work. An important benefit in this innovation: students are required to evaluate and reflect upon their work. Highlights of Implementing Student Led Conferences include: Overview and philosophy of student led conferences; Roles and responsibilities of participants; What an effective model looks like; How to prepare, organize and evaluate for maximum effectiveness; Anticipating and handling unique situations; The role of student led conferences in authentic assessment and reporting. A rich resource section includes everything you need to prepare, conduct and evaluate successful student led conferences: sample conference announcements and formats; portfolio planners; reproducible letters; parent and student response forms; teacher surveys and much more. This is an essential resource for teachers and administrators at every school level to maximize time, improve communication with parents and encourage student self reliance. The Marketer's Guide to Public Relations Thomas L. Harris, 1991-02-07. The 1990s will mark an era of intense competition both domestically and globally; businesses must win a share of the consumer's mind and heart and build strong consumer awareness and preference. However, in today's overcommunicated society, mass and even target advertising lose some of their cost effectiveness. That's where marketing public relations (MPR) comes in making the most of the strength of news events community programs and other powerful communication modalities Covers this emerging trend in public relations showing not only why MPR helped companies gain a competitive edge but also how it is used by its most sophisticated practitioners to get maximum mileage from product introductions special events marketing brand name associations and company reputation how to extend a product s life cycle defend products at risk and more Features examples and actual cases illustrating the success of MPR   The Single Parent ,1982   Caring for Kids in Communities Julia Ellis,Jan Small-McGinley,Lucy De Fabrizio,2001 Caring for Kids in Communities invites schools to consider the use of mentorship peer support and student leadership programs to positively support the growth and learning of all students It presents research on successful programs spanning kindergarten through grade 12 and includes a wealth of case studies of individual programs as well as individual pairs of mentors and mentees Thus this book provides insight into the experiences of students mentors teachers and coordinators from these programs as well as descriptive practical material for implementing similar programs   The Virginia Journal ,2004   A Perfect Fit Greg W.
