The Templars and their Sources Karl Borchardt, Karoline Döring, Philippe Josserand, Helen Nicholson, 2017-01-20 Even 700 years after the suppression of the Order of the Temple and the execution of the last grandmaster Jacques de Molay there is no shortage of publications on this influential military order Yet unlike other medieval institutions the Templars are subject to speculative fiction and popular myth which threaten to swamp the fruits of scholarly endeavour Fortunately recent years have produced a thriving academic scholarship which is challenging these myths More and more sources are currently being edited particularly those for the trial of the Templars 1307 1312 Others are still awaiting indepth study among them surprisingly the greater part of the charters that cover more than 150 years of the Order s history The papers in this volume step into this gap and critically evaluate new directions in Templar studies on the basis of as yet unedited source material Open issues and desiderata regarding the sources are discussed and from a range of inspiring results a new status quaestionis is proposed that will not only provide a better understanding of the Order s archaeological economical religious administrative and military history but also set new points of departure for the editing of charters and administrative documents The papers here are grouped into six sections focusing on the headquarters of the Order its charters manpower and finance religious life and finally the suppression and the Order s afterlife

Text/Image Mosaics in French Culture Laurance Grove,2017-03-02 This study compares text image interaction as manifested in emblem books and related forms and the modern bande dessin e or French language comic strip It moves beyond the issue of defining the emblematic genre to examine the ways in which emblems and their modern counterparts interact with the surrounding culture and what they disclose about that culture Drawing largely on primary material from the Biblioth que nationale de France and from Glasgow University Library s Stirling Maxwell Collection of emblem literature Laurence Grove builds on the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Elizabeth Eisenstein and more recently Neil Rhodes and Jonathan Sawday Divided into four sections Theoretics Production Thematics and Reception Text Image Mosaics in French Culture broaches topics such as theoretical approaches past and present to text image forms the question of narrative within the scope of text image creations and the reuse of visual iconography for diametrically opposed political or religious purposes
The author argues that despite the gap in time between the advent of emblems and that of comic strips the two forms are analogous in that both are the products of a parallel mentality The mindsets of the periods that popularised these forms have certain common features related to repeated social conditions rather than to the pure evolution over time Grove s analysis and historical contextualisation of that mentality provide insight into our own popular culture forms not only the comic strip but also other hybrid media such as advertising and the Internet His juxtaposition of emblems and the bande dessin e increases our understanding of all such combinations of picture and text
