Le socialisme devant ses choix Jean-François Biard,1985 Les idées de planification d'économie mixte nous sont devenues familières Si elles sont aujourd'hui contestées peu de gens souhaitent revenir au capitalisme pur et dur qui régnait avant guerre Les critiques portent davantage sur la technique du plan que l'on voudrait assouplir devant le caractère aléatoire de bien des éléments de la vie économique et sociale Mais l'évidence contemporaine ne doit pas faire oublier l'histoire l'origine et le long cheminement de l'idée du plan Un premier mérite du livre de Jean François Biard est d'ouvrir le dossier des origines dans leur relation privilégiée avec les mouvements de la gauche française et de reconstituer les débats auxquels le plan a donné lieu dans l'entre deux guerres En renonçant à la révolution en s'engageant d'ailleurs dans une voie réformiste les planistes se heurtent à la résistance de Léon Blum et de la majorité de la SFIO Car le mythe révolutionnaire semblait encore pouvoir seul assurer l'unité du socialisme En suivant l'histoire de la planification nous sommes ainsi conduits des mutations toujours actuelles sur la stratégie de la gauche Il n'y a pas de plan possible dans les batailles de classes Peut-il y en avoir comme objet d'un rassemblement national Une telle interrogation pourrait bien être l'un des principaux enseignements de cette histoire Mais Jean François Biard pousse encore plus loin l'analyse et montre quel point chez ceux qui combattirent le plan la distinction du modèle révolutionnaire la société socialiste future et du programme de portée immédiate ne reposait pas seulement sur une préoccupation stratégique mais traduit aussi une structure de pensée celle par laquelle l'autre monde la cité idéale doit être maintenu dans sa pureté et non dégradé par la recherche de solutions intermédiaires Le lecteur passe ainsi de la page d'histoire à une réflexion générale sur l'effet de besoin d'absolu chez l'homme L'comme ailleurs est toujours posé le problème des rapports de la forme et de la révolution Evoquer ces perspectives c'est montrer l'intérêt de ce livre la fois pour la connaissance de notre histoire et pour la réflexion sur des problèmes dont le temps n'a pas aboli l'actualité L'histoire du mouvement ouvrier n'est pas seulement celle de ses combats elle est aussi celle de ses problèmes de ses avancées et de ses échecs dans la tâche sans cesse renouvelée qui est toujours pour reprendre l'expression de Jaurès d'aller à l'idéal et de comprendre le réel      Le socialisme français : de l'affaire Dreyfus à la Grande Guerre Jean-Jacques Fiechter,1965      Le socialisme en danger ,1897
