Sisters Or Strangers Franca Iacovetta, Frances Swyripa, Marlene Epp, 2004-01-01 Spanning two hundred years of history from the nineteenth century to the 1990s Sisters or Strangers explores the complex lives of immigrant ethnic and racialized women in Canada The volume deals with a cross section of peoples including Japanese Chinese Black Aboriginal Irish Finnish Ukrainian Jewish Mennonite Armenian and South Asian Hindu women and diverse groups of women including white settlers refugees domestic servants consumer activists nurses wives and mothers The central themes of Sisters or Strangers include discourses of race in the context of nation building encounters with the state and public institutions symbolic and media representations of women familial relations domestic violence and racism and analyses of history and memory In different ways the authors question whether the historical experience of women in Canada represents a sisterhood of challenge and opportunity or if the racial class or marginalized identity of the immigrant and minority women made them in fact strangers in a country where privilege and opportunity fall according to criteria of exclusion Using a variety of theoretical approaches this collaborative work reminds us that victimization and agency are never mutually exclusive and encourages us to reflect critically on the categories of race gender and the nation

Learning Languages, Being Social Susanne Mohr, Lindsay Ferrara, 2024-08-05 This book addresses increasingly diverse language learning trajectories in a modern globalized world specifically outside of formal classroom situations and with respect to second and additional language practices This includes but is not restricted to intersections of formal and informal learning computer mediated contexts as well as family contexts and language learning in multilingual contexts The book provides a current and specifically anthropological view on the second and additional language acquisition in non school settings through various studies It is unique in its focus and scope and is relevant to anthropologists and linguists who are interested in the intersection of language and culture
