Rethinking Catholic Theology Egan, Harvey D., SJ, Rethinking Catholic Theology From The Mystery of Existence to the New Creation provides readers with an intelligent informed critical grasp of at least the central truths of the Catholic Christian tradition It aims to help readers to rethink more deeply these essential truths and moreover in what specific ways the understanding of the Catholic faith has changed and or remained the same since Vatican II The first part centers on Jesus Messiah and the mystery of existence It delineates how his life death resurrection as transformed physicality and ascension usher in the kingdom of God and best answer the questions Who am I Who are we Where did we come from and where are we ultimately headed What is the meaning of it all The second part focuses on how Pentecost the Trinity the Church the Scriptures the Sacraments Christian life itself Mariology the Communion of Saints and Christian mysticism shed light on the mystery of existence It demonstrates how the church flows intrinsically and naturally from the person of Jesus Christ and how the Scriptures and the sacraments likewise arise intrinsically and naturally from the church Part three stresses considers various views of afterlife mainly from the Judeo Christian tradition It raises difficult after death questions such as individual and general judgment the intermediate state the nature of the soul after death Limbo and Purgatory Finally it outlines the idea of Jesus s Second Coming and considers such concepts as Deep Incarnation and the New Creation The Congregationalist ,1919 Meaning-Centered Group Psychotherapy for Patients with Advanced Cancer William S. Breitbart MD,Shannon R. Poppito PhD,2014-08-07 The importance of spiritual well being and the role of meaning in moderating depression hopelessness and desire for death in terminally ill cancer and AIDS patients has been well supported by research and has led many palliative clinicians to look beyond the role of antidepressant treatment in this population Clinicians are focusing on the development of non pharmacologic interventions that can address issues such as hopelessness loss of meaning and spiritual well being in patients with advanced cancer at the end of life This effort led to an exploration and analysis of the work of Viktor Frankl and his concepts of logotherapy or meaning based psychotherapy While Frankl s

logotherapy was not designed for the treatment of patients with life threatening illnesses his concepts of meaning and spirituality have inspired applications in psychotherapeutic work with advanced cancer patients many of whom seek guidance and help in dealing with issues of sustaining meaning hope and understanding cancer and impending death in the context of their lives Individual Meaning Centered Group Psychotherapy IMCP an intervention developed and rigorously tested by the Department of Psychiatry Behavioral Sciences at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is a seven week program that utilizes a mixture of didactics discussion and experiential exercises that focus around particular themes related to meaning and advanced cancer Patients are assigned readings and homework that are specific to each session s theme and which are utilized in each session While the focus of each session is on issues of meaning and purpose in life in the face of advanced cancer and a limited prognosis elements of support and expression of emotion are inevitable in the context of each group session The structured intervention presented in this manual can be provided by a wide array of clinical disciplines ranging from chaplains nurses palliative care physicians to counselors psychotherapists social workers graduate psychology students psychologists and psychiatrists
