Purple Hooter Shot Recipe Randy Woodward, 2021-01-03 A purple hooter is a shot made from raspberry liqueur and mixed with an orange liqueur, vodka and lime juice. Some may omit the orange liqueur and replace it with a sweet and sour mix and lemon lime soda. It is also referred to as a Raspberry Gimlet. There are a number of ways to make this shot but the typical ones involve a combination of all of the aforementioned ingredients. It can also be made as a cocktail since it deserves to be savored as well. The sourness dances around the taste buds and brings a hint of sweetness. Before we get going with the recipe let's delve into its history first shall we? It's quite unclear though and seemingly contains no evidence but it's as good as it gets.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Alcohol Scott C. Martin, 2014-12-16 Alcohol consumption goes to the very roots of nearly all human societies. Different countries and regions have become associated with different sorts of alcohol for instance the beer culture of Germany, the wine culture of France, Japan and sake, Russia and vodka, the Caribbean and rum or the moonshine culture of Appalachia. Wine is used in religious rituals and toasts are used to seal business deals or to celebrate marriages and state dinners. However our relation with alcohol is one of love/hate. We also regulate it and tax it, we pass laws about when and where it's appropriate, we crack down severely on drunk driving and the United States and other countries tried the failed Noble Experiment of Prohibition. While there are many encyclopedias on alcohol nearly all approach it as a substance of abuse taking a clinical medical perspective alcohol alcoholism and treatment The SAGE Encyclopedia of Alcohol examines the history of alcohol worldwide and goes beyond the historical lens to examine alcohol as a cultural and social phenomenon as well both for good and for ill from the earliest days of humankind Iowa Liquor Quarterly ,2009
