Liszt Easy Piano:

Liszt's Final Decade Dolores Pesce, 2014 Liszt's Final Decade reveals in the composer's own words to his confidantes Carolyne von Sayn Wittgenstein and Olga von Meyendorff how he resolved his conflicted self image as a celebrated performer but underappreciated composer. Toward the end of his life Franz Liszt maintained extensive correspondence with two women who were at the time his closest confidantes Carolyne von Sayn Wittgenstein and Olga von Meyendorff. Liszt wrote to them regularly expressing his intimate feelings about personal and career events and his conflicted self image as a celebrated performer but underappreciated composer. Absent a diary the letters offer the most direct avenue into Liszt's psyche in his final years. Liszt's Final Decade explores through these letters the mind and music of one of the nineteenth century's most popular musicians providing insight into Liszt's melancholia in his last years and his struggle to gain recognition for his music yet avoid criticism. The exchange indicates that Liszt ultimately resolved his inner conflict through a personally constructed Christian moral philosophy that embraced positive resignation to suffering, compassionate love and trust in a just reward to come. The book also examines how Liszt's late sacred compositions affirm the yielding of suffering to joy and hope. Significantly Liszt viewed these works commonly overlooked today as a major part of his compositional legacy. This volume thus challenges the idea of a single late Lisztian style and the notion that despair overwhelmed the composer in his final years. We are pleased to announce that Liszt's Final Decade is the winner of the 2017 Alan Walker Book Award given by the American Liszt Society. Dolores Pesce is the Avis Blewett Professor of Music in Arts and Sciences at Washington University in St. Louis.

Easy Piano Music, Vol 2 Modest Mussorgski, 1973 Henle Franz Liszt's Music Manuscripts in the National Széchényi Library, Budapest Mária Eckhardt (musicologist), Országos Széchényi Könyvtár, 1986 The Music Division of the National Széchényi Library Budapest houses 78 music manuscripts and scores with all or part of each penned in the hand of Franz Liszt, one of Hungary's most prominent native sons. The library is the primary Hungarian public collection of Liszt's works and is among the world's most comprehensive. This book details the collection classifying the works as i Liszt's compositions autograph manuscripts manuscript copies proof sheets or printed copies with additions and corrections in Liszt's hand 62 items ii Liszt's compositions printed or manuscript copies with autograph dedications 10 items and iii Liszt's corrections and manuscript notes in and to works by other composers 6 items. Seventy-three music examples and 20 facsimile illustrations are also included. While other catalogues have been devoted to these Liszt compositions this is the first to take full and accurate account of the collection to date. Thorough philological data of the documents and descriptions and evaluations among the sources of the given composition are supplied. Maria Eckhardt's insightful additions concerning performance history and Liszt's relationships with dedicatees and fellow composers based upon her previously published research provide an enriched understanding of the compositions and their creator.
