Little Red Riding Hood's Mother by Tammy Ryan

Joan, age unspecified

Joan, an eccentric mother, has recently moved to the country with her daughter. She is disturbed to learn that young girls in the area are being abducted at school bus stops. Here she laments the tragic situation and offers a cynical view of a world in which such conduct is possible. There is genuine, sudden wit in her maternal instinct that captivates that hilarity of the moment.

Joan: This is what I want to know: how come we never hear the story about Little Red Riding Hood's Mother? What about her side of it? Standing on the doorstep, watching Little Red as she disappears round the bend into the dark woods. Heart beating, hands wringing, hyperventilating, completely powerless, frozen on that doorstep? What the hell was the matter with her? Letting her defenseless child walk through the woods by herself with a maniac on the loose? She knew full well that the forest was full of wolves, but she sent her out there with a basket of bait! 'Stay on the path,' like that's gonna save her. It's almost like she wanted Little Red out of the way...Maybe she couldn't stand the pressure of living in the woods anymore, the isolation, doing nothing but baking cookies for her sick mother herself? And where was Little Red's father? No one ever addresses that. And what about the Woodcutter? A strange man in the woods with an ax. Why does everyone automatically trust him? It's a frightening story. The Interview
by Jill Morley

Laura, age unspecified

Laura, an insecure actress with a dark, brooding temperament, is being interviewed by a theatre casting director. She is a larger-than-life social misfit in the middle of an unmistakable personality identity crisis. Laura's lack of self confidence accurately reflects her inability to make appropriate choices, and her prospects for a successful interview are minimal, to say the least.

Laura: Don't you have a scene for me to read? I am so boring. I am not one of those personality actresses. I'm completely devoid of personality. You're probably looking for one of those fun-loving, festive girls and that's not me. You see, I don't wear green on St. Patrick's Day. I'm not the kind of girl who dresses up for the holidays. I'm anti-holiday.

I don't know what it is...I have friends. They like me. I'm not even shy. Just...When I was in the third grade, I wrote an essay for my teacher. Miss Laskowski. The theme was, "I'll Never Forget The Day."
