Memo Geo November 2014 Caps:

Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea Natalie Klein, 2022-03-07 Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea explores the ways that actors operating at the international level develop standards of behaviour to regulate varied maritime activities beyond traditional lawmaking Other than conventions and customary international law there is a plethora of international agreements that influence international conduct This soft law or informal law is now prolific in ocean governance and so it is time to consider its significance for the law of the sea This monograph brings together women law of the sea scholars with expertise in specific areas of the law of the sea as well as international law more generally Informal lawmaking is examined in relation to ocean resources maritime security shipping and navigation and the marine environment In each instance there are reflections on the diverse actors processes and outputs shaping the regulation of the oceans The analyses in this book further consider what this activity means within the rules on the sources formation and interpretation of international law The growing reliance on informal agreements to fill legal gaps provides quick responses to pressing matters We must assess and understand these new forms of cooperation in order to influence existing treaties or customary international law Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea surveys the scope of informal lawmaking in the law of the sea and evaluates the significance of this activity for the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea as well as for ocean governance more broadly now and in the future

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies

Climate Change from the Streets Michael Méndez, 2020-01-07 An urgent and timely story of the contentious politics of incorporating environmental justice into global climate change policy Although the science of climate change is clear policy decisions about how to respond to its effects remain contentious Even when such decisions claim to be guided by objective knowledge they are made and implemented through political institutions and relationships and all the competing interests and power struggles that this implies Michael Mendez tells a timely story of people place and power in the context of climate change and inequality He explores the perspectives and influence low income people of color bring to their advocacy work on climate change In California activist groups have galvanized behind issues such as air pollution poverty alleviation and green jobs to advance equitable climate solutions at the local state and global levels Arguing that environmental protection and improving public health are inextricably linked Mendez contends that we must incorporate local knowledge culture and history into policymaking to fully address the global complexities of climate change and the real threats facing our local communities Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the disposessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe Through a variety of perspectives Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land s fictional powers and global visions of landed property s imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development Editors D. Asher Ghertner and Robert W. Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside Handbook on Cohesion Policy in the EU Simona Piattoni, Laura Polverari, 2016-08-26 This Handbook covers all major aspects of EU Cohesion policy one of the most significant areas of intervention of the European Union Over five parts It discusses this policy s history and governing principles the theoretical approaches from which it can be assessed the inter institutional and multi level dynamics that it tends to elicit its practical implementation and impact on EU member states its interactions with other EU policies and strategies and the cognitive maps and narratives with which it can be associated An absolute must for all students of the EU

How to Disappear Akiko Busch, 2019 In our increasingly networked and image saturated lives the notion of disappearing has never been both more enchanting and yet fanciful The pressure to be public comes not just from our peers but vast and pervasive technology companies which want to profit from patterns in our behaviour Busch sets out to explore her own uneasiness with this arrangement and what she senses is a widespread desire for a less scrutinised way of life in this shimmering collage of poetry cinema memoir myth and much more The Intelligence War in Latin America, 1914-1922

Jamie Bisher, 2016-03-07 World War I did not bypass Latin America Within days of the war's outbreak European belligerents mobilized intelligence assets and secret diplomacy to compete for Latin America's allegiances and resources This intelligence war entangled all of the American republics and even Japan Dreary consular offices from the Rio Grande to the Straits of Magellan were abruptly thrust into covert activities trafficking in fugitives running contraband and conducting sabotage Revolutionary and counter revolutionary movements big oil international banks and businesses were also drawn in Drawing on long classified U S intelligence documents this narrative of the Latin American intelligence war reveals the complexity and chaos behind the placid veneer of wartime Pan America The author connects the dots between Mexico City Buenos Aires Guatemala City Lima Havana Santiago Rio de Janeiro Berlin London Washington Tokyo and dozens of safe houses front companies consulates legations and headquarters in between Scores of unrecognized veterans of the intelligence war are revealed
