The Social History of Crime and Punishment in America: A-De Wilbur R. Miller, 2012-08-10 This comprehensive and authoritative four volume work surveys the history and philosophy of crime punishment and criminal justice institutions in America from colonial times to the present      Memoirs of a Playground Cop Rene Ortega, 2010-12-20 Most students lack any form of discipline or restraint in the classroom Parents condone their childrens behavior School administrators exhibit a god complex and school police officers are caught in between the web of school politics that often interferes in enforcing the law equally to all Today students adverse behavior in the classroom no longer constitutes a delinquent conduct as per classroom discipline management rules but rather an act that has manifests itself into a criminal offense Students are empowered to act bad when their own parents themselves refuse to correct their childrens maladaptive behavior by blaming others for their short comings And this problem is further exasperated by school administrators who either use a strong arm tactic to curtail the problem or a too soft a hand to make an impression to get a child to exhibit positive behavior in the classroom School administrators have a God complex where they walk around their campus expecting everyone including school police officers to do their bidding School administrators try to instill their own brand of justice by picking and choosing which students are to be charged with a criminal offense while others are allowed to continue their maladaptive behaviors School police officers find themselves in a very precarious situation where they must wear different hats to address different issues that arise in the classroom School police officers are like band aides that are place on a wound it is a cure all fix all approach to making problems go away unfortunately when dealing with the school community school police officers and law enforcement in general cannot use a band aide to make things better as police work in a school setting is a web of complex issues that fosters misunderstanding among members of the school and law enforcement communities      Memories of a Retired Cop Robert Meyerholz, 2015-06-23 This book contains over 200 true life police stories that only a real Police Officer could experience My true stories will tell about the Doctor who passed a standing school bus full on kindergarten children and then lied to me and said he was on an emergency call Remembering his address from checking his drivers license I found his Cadillac in his driveway He was having lunch with his wife I then wrote the ticket for passing a standing school bus and with utter pleasure handed it to him I will tell about the 55 year old man who was having a reported heart attack at 5 00 AM while in bed Knowing that an ambulance would take approximately 15 minutes to arrive at his house and another 5 minutes to get to the Hospital The man became unresponsive and I decided to take him in my police car a 1961 Chevy Biscayne color black with a long whip antenna on the left rear fender and a double blinking red light with built siren on the roof on my police car I carried his limp body to my car and placed him in the front passenger seat and had his wife sit in the rear seat just behind him and hold his shoulders as I sped to the the Hospital arriving 3 5 minutes later I could have lost my job had the poor man died in my police car Because he did survive his wife wrote a beautiful letter to my chief calling me a hero Then there was the little boy who asked me for a ride around the block in my police car After getting mommy s permission he asked if his beagle dog named Sam could go also Putting Sam in the back seat we proceeded until the youngster asked me what time it was and I answered 10 minutes to 2 00 PM He then said lets hurry because every day at 2 00 PM Sam throws up

What I said We were back in the boys driveway in mere seconds These are only a few of my vivid memories of being a Police Officer The excitement the danger The opportunity to made a difference in peoples lives No job in the world could compare to being a Police Officer      Memoirs of a Newark, New Jersey Police Officer Anthony J. Carbo,2004 This book is a variety of short stories and episodes that I faced while I was a police officer for the city of Newark New Jersey for fifteen and a half years It gives a brief description on daily routines that police officers were faced with on the job without a lot of today s technology I was a street patrolman and didn t have too much knowledge or facts about on going events inside the police department In this book I tried to convey my personal feelings thoughts actions and some of my experiences on what I witnessed did or heard on the streets of this city during my time as a police officer from January 6 1964 to June 30 1979
