

far better job of proving a behavioral point with nuanced characters and, best of all, humor. For example, I'm Bored by Michael Ian Black, illustrated by Debbie Ridpath Ohi, in which a potato—you have to trust us here—constantly complains to an idle child that it's bored, at one point muttering, "Snoring!" It is far more effective than, say, a story in which a parent berates two children for lying around the house all day doing nothing.

Books Starring TV Characters

Sometimes, publishers take advantage of TV shows' popularity by churning out books based on franchised TV characters with minimal investment in literary and artistic value. Books about TV characters are often made by ever-changing teams of authors and illustrators, causing inconsistency and market glut. And books based on TV characters can make kids crave even more TV time. If your kid absolutely demands a book starring Peppa Pig, there's no great harm done by indulging her—it is a book, after all—but try to keep these in check.
