A Global Idea Maysoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Maysoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere

Urban Forests, Trees, and Greenspace L. Anders Sandberg, Adrina Bardekjian, Sadia Butt, 2014-07-25 Urban forests trees and greenspace are critical in contemporary planning and development of the city Their study is not only a question of the growth and conservation of green spaces but also has social cultural and psychological dimensions This book brings a perspective of political ecology to the complexities of urban trees and forests through three themes human agency in urban forests and greenspace arboreal and greenspace agency in the urban landscape and actions and interventions in the urban forest Contributors include leading authorities from North America and Europe from a range of disciplines including forestry ecology geography landscape design municipal planning environmental policy and environmental history

Drawing Futures Bob Sheil, Frédéric Migayrou, Luke Pearson, Laura Allen, 2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas
