Memorandum Of Pat Phase 2 2014

David Baud

Memorandum Of Pat Phase 2 2014:

The Nixon White House Redecoration and Acquisition Program Patrick Phillips-Schrock, 2016-06-21 A positive legacy of the troubled Nixon administration and one virtually unknown to the American public is the extensive acquisition of valuable art and antiques for the White House and the redecoration of the executive mansion by Pat Nixon With the help of an aggressive curator Clement Conger and a talented interior designer Edward Vason Jones the First Lady quietly erased much of the historic decor of Jacqueline Kennedy s Camelot and introduced an academic look to the State Rooms which endures to this day Nixon marked his presidential territory with a complete renovation of the West Wing a harbinger of the First Lady s plans They implemented a massive fundraising campaign to bankroll the refurbishment which resulted in one of the foremost collections of art art objects furniture paintings and sculpture in America This book presents the never before told story of the Nixons remodeling of the White House motivated by the approaching American Bicentennial and a desire to restore respect to the presidency through the arts

Shielded Joanna Schwartz, 2023-02-14 Winner of the American Bar Association s Silver Gavel Award An urgent and definitive examination of how the legal system prevents accountability for police misconduct from one of the country s leading scholars on policing In recent years the high profile murders of George Floyd Breonna Taylor and so many others have brought much needed attention to the pervasiveness of police misconduct Yet it remains nearly impossible to hold police accountable for abuses of power the decisions of the Supreme Court state and local governments and policy makers have over decades made the police all but untouchable In Shielded University of California Los Angeles law professor Joanna Schwartz exposes the myriad ways in which our legal system protects police at all costs with insightful analyses about subjects ranging from qualified immunity to no knock warrants The product of more than two decades of advocacy and research Shielded is a timely and necessary investigation into why civil rights litigation so rarely leads to justice or prevents future police misconduct Weaving powerful true stories of people seeking restitution for violated rights cutting across race gender criminal history tax bracket and zip code Schwartz paints a compelling picture of the human cost of our failing criminal justice system bringing clarity to a problem that is widely known but little understood Shielded is a masterful work of immediate and enduring consequence revealing what tragically familiar calls for justice truly entail

Clark's Horse Review , 1901 The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology, Volume 5 T.P. Burt, A.S. Goudie, H.A. Viles, 2022-10-20 Co published with British Society for Geomorphology This volume is the fifth in the definitive series The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology Volume 1 1964 dealt with contributions to the field up to 1890 Volume 2 1973 with the concepts and contributions of William Morris Davis and Volume 3 1991 covered historical and regional themes during the classic period of geomorphology 1890 1950 Volume 4 2008 concentrated on studies of geomorphological processes and Quaternary geomorphology between 1890 and 1965 by the end of this period process based studies had become dominant Volume 5 builds on this platform covering in detail the revolutionary changes in approach that characterized the study of geomorphology in the second half of the twentieth century It is divided into three sections the first deals with changes in approach and method the second with changes in ideas and the broader scientific context within which geomorphology is studied and the final section details advances in research on processes and landforms The volume s objective is to describe and analyse many of the developments that provide a foundation for the rich and varied subject matter of twenty first century geomorphology
