Women of the Wall Yuval Jobani, Nahshon Perez, 2017-06-01 In October of 2014 12 year old Sasha Lutt read from a tiny Torah scroll as a part of her bat mitzvah in the Women's section of the plaza at the Western Wall Judaism's holiest prayer site Surrounded by members of the multi denominational organization the Women of the Wall one of whom had smuggled the scroll into the plaza Sasha became the first woman to read from the Torah at the site For more than twenty five years the Women of the Wall have been waging a campaign to gain the Israeli government's permission to pray at the Western Wall Despite widespread media coverage this is the first comprehensive study of their struggle Yuval Jobani and Nahshon Perez offer an in depth analysis of the Women of the Wall's attempts to modify Jewish orthodox mainstream religious practice from within and invest it with a new egalitarian content They present a comprehensive survey of the numerous legal rulings about the case and consider the broader political and social significance of the Women of the Wall's activism In this way Jobani and Perez are able to address broader issues of religion state relations How should governments manage religious plurality within their borders How should governments respond to the requests of minorities that conflict with ostensibly mainstream interpretations of a given tradition How should governments manage disputed sacred sites and spaces located in the public sphere Women of the Wall Navigating Religion in Sacred Sites offers a critical new look at theories of religion state relations and a fresh examination of religious conflicts over sacred sites and public spaces Strategic Environmental Assessment and Urban Planning Giovanni

Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi Tzanelli,2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration     Trade Policy Review ,2019     Accessions List, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress.
