REVIEWS It takes rare talent for a man to write a novel from a male POV and have it published to great critical and commercial acclaim. But it takes a miracle for that same male or in this case males to write a novel from the POV of a teenage girl and have it turn out as incredibly as did the new StoneHouse YA by Aaron Patterson and Chris White: AIREL. From the first sentence I felt compelled to dive into this young woman's story and just as importantly I felt like I personally knew her, which means I laughed, stressed, and cried right along with her. A beautifully written and crafted fiction about teenage innocence, faith, loss, and love. A must read for teens and adults alike.

Vincent Zandri, International Bestselling Author of The Remains, The Innocent, and Concrete Pearl, I am happy to say that this novel is one of my favorites of its kind. I never thought I could read a novel like this and be so swept away. I am always willing to try new books, but I usually steer clear of this kind of novel. Not anymore. Not when I can be so engrossed into the character's story like I was with the beautiful AIREL that before I know it's over I kept turning the pages wanting to no NEEDING to know what was going to happen next.
