American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Resources in Education, 1997-07 The English Teacher's Companion Jim Burke, 2008 Teachers and teacher educators asked for the latest research on literacy more information about national standards ways to consider gender in instruction advice for teaching Advanced Placement classes ideas for teaching media literacy and incorporating technology effectively into instruction even more resources for mentoring new teachers analysis of how trends in society culture and politics impact teachers and their classrooms And Jim delivers He has revamped his introductory chapters on literacy learning to include up to the minute thinking from the field and he has incorporated lists of key standards and helpful suggestions for reaching them His practical strategies turn recent findings on literacy and gender into well designed research based instruction and his ideas help you meet the very different needs of AP students by understanding their goals and providing them with appropriate challenges The Writer's Practice John

Warner, 2019-02-05 Unique and thorough Warner's handbook could turn any determined reader into a regular Malcolm Gladwell Booklist For anyone aiming to improve their skill as a writer a revolutionary new approach to establishing robust writing practices inside and outside the classroom from the author of Why They Can't Write After a decade of teaching writing using the same methods he'd experienced as a student many years before writer editor and educator John Warner realized he could do better Drawing on his classroom experience and the most persuasive research in contemporary composition studies he devised an innovative new framework a step by step method that moves the student through a series of writing problems an organic bottom up writing process that exposes and acculturates them to the ways writers work in the world The time is right for this new and groundbreaking approach The most popular books on composition take a formalistic view utilizing templates in order to mimic the sorts of rhetorical moves academics make While this is a valuable element of a writing education there is room for something that speaks more broadly The Writer's Practice invites students and novice writers into an intellectually engaging active learning process that prepares them for a wider range of academic and real world writing and allows them to become invested and engaged in their own work Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003

Practical Ideas for Teaching Writing as a Process at the High School and College Levels Carol Booth Olson, 1997 The concept of writing as process has revolutionized the way many view composition and this book is organized by the stages of that process Each section begins with a well known author presenting specific techniques followed by commentaries which include testimonials applications of writing techniques and descriptions of strategy modifications all contributed by classroom teachers The book includes the following sections and initial chapters Section 1 The Process Teaching Writing as a Process Catherine D Aoust Section 2 Prewriting Clustering A Prewriting Process Gabriele Lusser Rico Section 3 Prewriting in Different Subjects Prewriting Assignments Across the Curriculum Jim Lee Section 4 Showing Not Telling A Training Program for Student Writers Rebekah Caplan Section 5 Using Cooperative Learning to Facilitate Writing Using Structures to Promote

Judith Ortiz Cofer in the Classroom Carol Jago,2006 Carol Jago offers ways to teach the works of Judith Ortiz Cofer in the high school English classroom In an era of increasing emphasis on standardized testing it can be difficult to add the works of new authors to the high school English curriculum But what if reading the poetry and fiction of Judith Ortiz Cofer or the writing of other multicultural authors engaged your students in such deep reading and writing that their scores went through the roof In this practical guide Carol Jago argues that the curriculum should embrace all kinds of literature because such a curriculum keeps students both engaged and challenged The writing of Puerto Rican American poet essayist and novelist Judith Ortiz Cofer appeals to students of all ethnicities because it speaks to a universal effort to balance the demands of self home and broader culture This short readable and practical guide to teaching her work includes several of Cofer's poems many examples of student writing some modeled on Cofer's poetry and some in response to her fiction guidance on standards based literary analysis a rubric for evaluating the reflective essay and an interview with Cofer by Ren e Shea Writing like Cofer's which reflects students lives no matter what their primary culture draws adolescents into literature and pushes them outside the zone of minimal effort as they more willingly develop their reading writing and critical thinking
