Excerpt from Little Tora the Swedish Schoolmistress And Other Stories The kindly doctor was entertaining his brother in law and all the family were sitting round the table in state The polished silver and shining glass with porcelain flowers and fruit seemed to be all that had been provided for the dinner The usual grace had hardly been said when a trim maid announced that a little girl was at the door who must see the doctor about something particular There is nobody sick more than usual she says but she must come in continued the irritated damsel in waiting Let her come in here You can never have your meals in peace said the doctor s wife affectionately About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Little Tora, The Swedish Schoolmistress and Other Stories Sarah S.
