MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 81

Office of the President
Malacañang

MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 81

To provide government employees full opportunity to properly observe Maundy Thursday and Good Friday on 17-18 April 2025, and to allow them to travel to and from the different regions in the country, the following arrangements are hereby adopted in government offices on 18 April 2025: (a) work from home from 8:00 in the morning to 12:00 in the afternoon, subject to existing laws, rules and regulations; and (b) suspension of work in government offices, from 12:00 in the afternoon onwards.

However, agencies whose functions involve the delivery of basic and health services, preparedness/response to disasters and calamities, and/or the performance of other vital services shall continue with their operations under usual working arrangements and render the necessary services.

The adoption of work from home and suspension of work for private companies and offices is left to the discretion of their respective employers.

This Circular shall take effect immediately.

By authority of the President:

LENI R. DUTERTE
Executive Secretary

Memorandum For Ett November 2012:

The Report: Mongolia 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-05-23 Since the country s transition from communism two decades ago the Mongolian economy has experienced rapid liberalisation Sectors including ICT and insurance are expanding quickly and while the mining sector has been responsible for making Mongolia a rising star in the global economy there is great potential for further growth in all economic sectors Politically stable and rich with natural resources Mongolia has emerged as a bellwether for investor confidence in recent years The 2013 commercialisation of the Oyu Tolgoi gold and copper mine is helping to diversify Mongolia s mineral exports away from coal while the government is working to improve the investment environment by adopting the new Investment Law among other measures Challenges do exist however from the long harsh winters that slow construction to the difficulty of connecting the sparsely populated nation through ICT and transport systems In response the government has partnered with the private sector on a number of fronts in order to promote economic diversification and competitiveness

The Integration and Protection of Immigrants Paul Van Aerschot,Patricia Daenzer,2016-02-24 In Scandinavian countries immigration is a sensitive issue and legislators approach to the questions it has raised has varied over the years Whatever immigrant and integration policies are adopted in a democratic society it is clear that the legislation and the authorities have to ensure that the individual rights of the immigrants residing in its territory are respected With Canada as a point of reference this book draws attention to weaknesses in the regulation and implementation of integration provisions threatening the immigrants individual rights in the EU member states of Denmark Finland and Sweden The study challenges readers to critically review the meaning of rights and the notion of global caring It takes a critical look at how vulnerable immigrants fare in a largely immigrant nation with a welfare capitalism legacy when compared to three European nations which claim to embrace institutional welfare models This book will be of great interest to scholars and decision makers interested in Scandinavian or Canadian immigration and integration policies

Empowered Educators in Canada Carol Campbell,Ken Zeichner,Ann Lieberman,Pamela Osmond-Johnson,2017-03-13 BEST PRACTICES FROM CANADA S HIGH PERFORMING SCHOOL SYSTEMS Empowered Educators in Canada is one volume in a series that explores how high performing educational systems from around the world achieve strong results The anchor book Empowered Educators How High Performing Systems Shape Teaching Quality Around the World is written by Linda Darling Hammond and colleagues with contributions from the authors of this volume Empowered Educators in Canada details the core commonalities that exist across Canada with special emphasis on the localized nature of the systems a hallmark of

Canadian education Canada boasts a highly educated population and the provinces territories truly value education as evidenced by the significant proportion of public funds allocated to schooling Operated by the provinces and territories participation in kindergarten primary and secondary education is close to 100% across the nation In addition to offering traditional academics secondary education includes opportunities for students to attend technical and vocational programs To demonstrate exemplary education systems the authors examine two top performing jurisdictions Alberta and Ontario which have developed strong supports for teacher development Canadian teachers are highly qualified and salary scales in all jurisdictions are typically based on a teacher s level of education and years of experience While Canada has enjoyed much educational success the education of First Nations students has historically been one of the country s more controversial and contentious issues Overall Canada is a country that is proud of its education system and places a high value on and participation in publicly funded education
