Plagiarama! Geoffrey Sanborn,2016-03-08 William Wells Brown 1814 1884 was a vocal abolitionist a frequent antagonist of Frederick Douglass and the author of Clotel the first known novel by an African American He was also an extensive plagiarist copying at least 87 000 words from close to 300 texts In this critical study of Brown s work and legacy Geoffrey Sanborn offers a novel reading of the writer s plagiarism arguing the act was a means of capitalizing on the energies of mass cultural entertainments popularized by showmen such as P T Barnum By creating the textual equivalent of a variety show Brown animated antislavery discourse and evoked the prospect of a pleasurably integrated world Brown s key dramatic protagonists were the spirit of capitalization the unscrupulous double of Max Weber s spirit of capitalism and the beautiful slave girl a light skinned African American woman on the verge of sale and rape Brown's unsettling portrayal of these figures unfolded within a riotous patchwork of second hand texts upset convention and provoked the imagination Could a slippery upstart lay the groundwork for a genuinely interracial society Could the fetishized image of a not yet sold woman hold open the possibility of other destinies Sanborn's analysis of pastiche and plagiarism adds new depth to the study of nineteenth century culture and the history of African American literature suggesting modes of African American writing that extend beyond narratives of necessity and purpose characterized by the works of Frederick Douglass and others

A Place of Rest for Our Gallant Boys Christy Perry Tuohey, 2022-05-11 A Place of Rest for Our Gallant Boys is the story of both Civil War horrors and hope of Army surgeons and civilians risking their own lives to save others It is the story of heroes and heroines who worked tirelessly in the wards of a military hospital to heal sick and broken soldiers bodies Gallipolis Ohio was uniquely situated to become a hospital site Its proximity to early Civil War battles in western Virginia and location on the Ohio River made it an ideal place to receive patients arriving via steamboat from remote battlefields and field hospitals The people who cared for the ailing warriors came from all quarters a young teacher who switched to nursing when hospital cots filled her classroom a New England surgeon who survived Confederate capture and a bloody Southern battle to take charge of the Army hospital a hospital steward who nursed his regimental comrade back from the brink of death and how together they ended up treating casualties in Gallipolis

Black Women's Portrayals on Reality Television Donnetrice C. Allison, 2016-01-14 This book critically analyzes the portrayals of Black women in current reality television Audiences are presented with a multitude of images of Black women fighting arguing and cursing at one another in this manufactured world of reality television This perpetuation of negative insidious racial and gender stereotypes influences how the U S views Black women This stereotyping disrupts the process in which people are able to appreciate cultural and gender difference Instead of celebrating the diverse symbols and meaning making that accompanies Black women's discourse and identities reality television scripts an artificial or plastic image of Black women that reinforces extant stereotypes This collection's contributors seek to uncover examples in reality television shows where instantiations of Black women's gendered racial and cultural difference is signified and made sinister
