Memorandum Of Final 2013 Exam Geography:

David Lowenthal's Archipelagic and Transatlantic Landscapes Kenneth R. Olwig, 2023-07-31 David Lowenthal was well known for his historical and geographical contribution to conservation and environmental thinking his understanding and appreciation of landscape and his critical public and scholarly contribution to heritage debates as a founder of heritage studies He was a public intellectual and academic scholar who worked with scholars and practitioners as well as within public fora His contribution can only be fully grasped in the light of his research and his practical and political engagement with islands particularly Caribbean islands as a geographer historian and scholarly activist This engagement with material islands was also linked to his more abstract concern with the archipelagic quality of knowledge as it straddles the humanities and natural sciences Of importance was furthermore his felt need to engage actively in both public and scholarly debates deriving from his family's background in law public service and social activism The integrated chapters in this book authored by prominent scholars together illuminate the many facets of Lowenthal's biography and written works With an updated Editor's introduction and a new afterword by Charles Saumarez Smith this book will interest students scholars and academics in Landscape and Planning Heritage Studies Conservation History and Caribbean Studies The book was originally published as a special issue in Landscape Research

States of Fragility 2016 Understanding Violence

OECD, 2016-11-30 The world is getting more violent and violence is occurring in surprising places Over the past 15 years 3.4 billion people or almost half of the world's population have been affected by violence The number of violent conflicts is decreasing but conflicts are killing more people

Restraint Barry R. Posen, 2014-06-03 The United States Barry R Posen argues in Restraint has grown incapable of moderating its ambitions in international politics Since the collapse of Soviet power it has pursued a grand strategy that he calls liberal hegemony one that Posen sees as unnecessary counterproductive costly and wasteful Written for policymakers and observers alike Restraint explains precisely why this grand strategy works poorly and then provides a carefully designed alternative grand strategy and an associated military strategy and force structure In contrast to the failures and unexpected problems that have stemmed from America's consistent overreaching Posen makes an urgent argument for restraint in the future use of U.S. military strength After setting out the political implications of restraint as a guiding principle Posen sketches the appropriate military forces and posture that would support such a strategy He works with a deliberately constrained notion of grand strategy and even more important of national security which he defines as including sovereignty territorial integrity power position and safety His alternative for military strategy which Posen calls command of the commons focuses on protecting U.S. global access through naval air and space power while freeing the United States from most of the relationships that require the permanent stationing of U.S. forces overseas

Earned Citizenship Michael J. Sullivan, 2019-03-19 The migration and settlement of 11 million unauthorized immigrants is among the leading political challenges facing the United States today But what do the state and citizens owe to unauthorized immigrants given non citizen contributions to their adopted country and connections to citizens who depend on them Earned Citizenship is a normative intervention in migration and citizenship studies that advances the proposition that long term unauthorized immigrant residents should be able to earn legalization and a pathway to citizenship through service to citizens in their adopted communities Applying GPS Data to Understand Travel Behavior Jean Louise Wolf,William H.
