Territory in Conflict Fatina Abreek-Zubiedat, 2025-04-08 A Territory in Conflict explores Israeli and Palestinian projects of modernization and development in the Gaza Strip from the outset of Israel's military occupation in 1967 to the Oslo Accords of 1993 Rather than reduce the Gaza Strip to an arena of war and violence Fatina Abreek Zubiedat resurrects the urban and architectural history of Gaza's cities and the varied perspectives and identities of the people who shaped them Through a close examination of planning activities in occupied Palestinian territory focusing on development settlement and security her book highlights the collision between Israeli occupation Palestinian nationalism and regional peace processes politics of class and citizenship contestation between camps and cities and the tensions inherent in Israeli development policies designed to establish lasting control over the territory's demographics and resources Abreek Zubiedat probes the power of architecture in conflict zones illustrating the agency of Gaza's cultural elite its mayors architects and engineers At the same time she draws attention to alternative voices Gaza's local inhabitants and refugees illuminating the conflicts complexities and contradictions of settler colonialism in the Middle East Her innovative approach to urbanization resettlement and rehabilitation in the Gaza Strip offers a groundbreaking account of the Israel Palestine conflict that goes beyond the limited framework of colonizer colonized binary restoring Gaza's cities in the public eye and giving voice to the people who inhabit them Catalogue Harvard University. Graduate School of Design. Library, 1974 Casablanca Chandigarh Tom Avermaete, Maristella Casciato, Mirko Zardini, 2014 This book documents two complementary urban realities that have played a fundamental role in the imagination definition and redefinition of the twentieth century modern city Shifting away from an understanding of architecture as the construction of monumental masterpieces the texts collected here assemble the narratives behind the public spaces housing and social facilities in these two cities where modern plans have proven unexpectedly resilient and adaptable over time This perspective is reinforced through visual contributions by Yto Barrada and Takashi Homma two photographers especially invested in capturing everyday urban life In a world marked by decolonization and Cold War politics Casablanca and Chandigarh appear simultaneously as exponents of and countercurrents to modernization and its development perspectives The book's three chapters set the context for reading Casablanca and Chandigarh as the results of nuanced dynamic processes of international exchange driven by the engagement and expertise of a new class of design professionals As a dossier of actors alignments and agendas the book contributes to an alternative historiography of post war urbanism and to recent reflections on the impact of transnational practice P 4 of cover
