Henri Michaux Nina Parish, 2007-01-01 Henri Michaux is both a recognised poet and visual artist arguably one of the greatest double artists of the twentieth century This book presents the first detailed examination of a particular interdisciplinary aspect of his production namely the innovative experimentation with signs contained in four works Mouvements Par la voie des rythmes Saisir and Par des traits Questions arise concerning their literary and visual status as in their attempt to render interior rhythm and dynamism they occupy an interstitial space between writing and drawing between the book and the canvas between the Western alphabet and Chinese characters This study addresses these questions by analysing the conception production and reception of Michaux's signs and the literary and artistic contexts in which they were produced

PaintingDigitalPhotography Carl Robinson, 2019-01-29 We live in a digital age where the mediums of art are inextricably bound to the binary code and painting and photography are redefined in their interconnected relationship through digital reconfiguration As digitisation unmoors these mediums from their traditional supports their modes of production display and dissemination shift These changes bring about new ways of creating and engaging with artworks Through this the innate qualities of the mediums previously anchored in their analogue nature are re-evaluated through their connection with the digital Born out of the PaintingDigitalPhotography conference held at QUAD Derby UK in May 2017 this anthology of essays investigates aspects of interconnectivity between painting digital and photography in contemporary art practices It contributes to critical discourses around networks of associations by examining where syntheses occur and differences remain between these mediums at the beginning of the twenty first century

Giambatista Viko; or, The Rape of African Discourse Georges Ngal, 2022-03-25 Georges Ngal's pathbreaking satire

Giambatista Viko explores the vexed relations between metropolitan centers and peripheral former colonies through its titular antihero an African professor at an African studies institute divided between European focused cosmopolitans and Africanists Struggling to write the great African novel and subject to abuse Viko realizes he can no longer separate the African and the European parts of his multilayered African francophone culture Viko's fate is a warning about the perils of artistic creation in a world where power is not shared Part of the wave of African novels of the 1960s and 1970s that grappled with the disenchantments of decolonization Giambatista Viko can be read at once as a Congolese novel a francophone novel and a work of world literature

Migrations of Gesture Carrie Noland, Sally Ann Ness, 2008 Derived from the Latin verb gerere to carry act or do gesture has accrued critical currency but has remained undertheorized Migrations of Gesture addresses this absence and provides a complex theory on the value of gesture for understanding human sign production Gestures migrate from body to body from one medium to another and between cultural contexts Juxtaposing distinct approaches to gesture in order to explore the ways in which they at once shape and are influenced by culture the contributors examine the works of writers Henri Michaux and Stéphane Mallarmé photographers Henri Cartier Bresson and Robert Frank and filmmakers Hou Hsiao Hsien and Martin Arnold along with cultural practices such as gang walking ballet and classical Indian dance The authors move deftly between an organic phenomenal appreciation of human expression and a historicist semiotic understanding of how the human is itself created through gestural routines Contributors Mark Franko U of California Santa Cruz Ketu H Katrak U of California Irvine Akira Mizuta Lippit U of Southern California Susan A Phillips Pitzer College Deidre Sklar Lesley Stern U of California San Diego Blake Stimson U of California Davis Carrie Noland is associate professor of French literature and critical theory at the University of California Irvine Sally Ann Ness is professor of anthropology at University of California Riverside
