Capacity Building for a Reforming African Power Sector J. Baguant, 2002 Capacity building for the power sector is an important national responsibility which Governments in Africa need to seriously address The inability of Governments to mobilize the required level of investment and commitment to the development and retention of a wide array of skills needed by the power sector is in part responsible for many of the difficulties that are faced by the region s electricity industry Under the aegis of the AFREPREN Capacity Building Theme Group a regional study and four country studies Zimbabwe Mauritius Ethiopia and South Africa addressed the capacity building question in the African power sector This volume presents the findings of the studies The studies analyse issues of manpower recruitment training and retention in national power utilities They also highlight the challenges and implications of capacity building initiatives in a reforming electricity industry and propose innovative options for capacity building in the region s power sector

The Oxford Handbook of the New Cultural History of Music Jane F. Fulcher, 2011-09-29 As the field of Cultural History grows in prominence in the academic world an understanding of the history of culture has become vital to scholars across disciplines The Oxford Handbook of the New Cultural History of Music cultivates a return to the fundamental premises of cultural history in the cutting edge work of musicologists concerned with cultural history and historians who deal with music In this volume noted academics from both of these disciplines illustrate the continuing endeavor of cultural history to grasp the realms of human experience understanding and communication as they are manifest or expressed symbolically through various layers of culture and in many forms of art The Oxford Handbook of the New Cultural History of Music fosters and reflects a sustained dialogue about their shared goals and techniques rejuvenating their work with new insights into the field itself
