(Possible answers; students' sentences may vary.)

- Momma is not a pen name.
- The title of the book contains many words.
- President Clinton invited her to compose a poem for his inauguration.
- She was the proprietor of a store.
- Angelou was suffering from an excruciating toothache.
- He used demeaning language to show that she wasn't welcome.
- Abusing and threatening Angelou, a child of eight, were criminal actions, which are not what one wants to imitate.
- The dentist's actions deserve scorn because he used horrible language and refused to treat someone who needed his services.
- Evoke means "to bring to mind by suggestion."
- Although Angelou suffered abuse and prejudice, she was not defeated by these experiences and was able to use them in her creative work.
- Angelou was moved from place to place after her parents' divorce.
- The passage says Angelou remembered Bertha Flowers as someone who helped and encouraged her. This does not suggest someone who is abrupt in manner or gruff.
- During the 1930s, racial bigotry toward African Americans pervaded the country.
- Angelou wrote and presented the requested poem.
- Avid means "eager; enthusiastic."

Targeted Reading Intervention , Journal New South Wales. Parliament. Legislative Council,1883 Jensen's Grammar Frode Jensen,2017-10-09 Jensen s Grammar lessons and exercises were built with three concepts in mind First spaced repetition is the key to learning hence there is review in every lesson Second the information is given incrementally that is the material comes in a natural progression of detail and concept interwoven so as to move you along with something new each lesson while fitting it in with the material previously learned and practiced Third the sentences in the exercises will generally set a scene or describe an action Thus they are usually more interesting reading in themselves instead of the random sentences in exercises found in most grammar texts Students completing this course will learn valuable skills how to create place and punctuate relative clauses in order to write more sophisticated sentencesa simple procedure to reduce the number of words in a sentence to help you search for subjects and verbshow to use a simple chart that unlocks the mystery of differentiating the major parts of speechhow to use the words and structures you are being taught in your own sentencesunderstanding the fundamentals of grammar in such a way that you will not forget them but will use them effectively Self-Confrontation John C. Broger,BCF writing team,1991-10-01 The purpose of this manual is to teach you how to examine yourself biblically so you can live in a manner that pleases the Lord and help others to do the same The material in this manual also has been used in Bible studies for youth and adults classes for Christian students junior high high school college and seminary level courses of study designed to prepare missionaries for their ministry evangelism training discipleship training in prison ministries Sunday school classes home group studies personal devotional studies and Scripture memorization programs In addition it has proved valuable as a resource for pastors counselors health care professionals personnel managers educators social workers and other professionals who are responsible to deal with personal and interpersonal problems As you progress through this manual you will discover many other uses for this material in your life and personal ministry Please do not be intimidated by the volume of Scripture references contained in this manual A new believer in Jesus Christ can find great comfort and help from looking up only one verse out of many that are listed on a particular subject On the other hand the Bible scholar or seminary student may desire to research many of the Scripture references from the original languages of the Bible No matter how proficient you are in using Scripture this manual encourages you to rely on the Word of God to discover God s sufficiency for every aspect of your life Proceedings Pennsylvania State University.
