Expensive Poverty Greg Mills, 2021-10-01 Africa has received 1 2 trillion in development assistance since 1990. Even though donors have spent more than 1 000 per person over these 30 years the average income of sub Saharan Africans has increased by just 350. The continent has very little to show for this money some of which has been consumed by the donors themselves much of it by local governments and elites. There must be a better way to address the poverty pandemic. Expensive Poverty is focused on answering the trillion dollar question why have decades of spending had such a small impact on improving the lives of the poor. Whatever the area of aid expenditure humanitarian governance military development the overall intention should be the same to try to reach the point that aid is
