Rethinking Politeness with Henri Bergson Alessandro Duranti,2022 In 1885 Henri Bergson addressed a class of French high school students on the subject of politeness Bergson would go on to become one of the most influential philosophers of his time yet although this essay set forth a striking theory of politeness and foreshadowed aspects of his later work it remains remarkably little known Rethinking Politeness with Henri Bergson offers the first English translation of Discours sur la Politesse and brings together leading linguistic anthropologists to critically engage with and expand on Bergson's ideas At the core of Bergson's essay is a tripartite classification of politeness acts into politesse des manières politeness of manners politesse de l'esprit politeness of mind spirit and politesse du coeur politeness of the heart Presented along a hierarchy of intersubjective attunement and ethical aspirations Bergson's three types call for the progressive abandonment of habits when they get in the way of our ability to help others They can also be read as an invitation to consider politeness as a dimension of human sociability that is relevant to social theory Collectively the essays in this volume untangle the ideological socio historical and material conditions that shape notions of the ideal social agent and propose a rethinking of politeness that serves as a bridge to larger issues of civility citizenship and democracy
