Mysticism and Witness in Koinonia Maria Clara Bingemer, 2023-11-10 Testimony until the end in a radical donation of life and blood can be communitarian and not only individual That is the case for the two communities of Trappists and Jesuits so different in their form and so close in their radicality One is contemplative the other active one is in Africa the other in Latin America Both are religious Catholic orders Nevertheless the cause of their violent death is secular For one there is love and dialogue with otherness other cultures other religions other beliefs For the other there is justice for those who are the victims of iniquitous economic and political systems the poor Assuming secular causes into their religious consecration and commitment those communities teach today to the plural society we live in how to be open to otherness to difference and to the various vulnerabilities that clamor for justice They also teach to the churches a new radical way to live the gospel not with a unique institutional point of view but with an unlimited openness to all hungers and thirsts of the world Their martyrdom is a liturgy celebrated publicly instigating reflection and action L'esprit de Tibhirine Jean-Pierre, Nicolas Ballet, 2012
