Mille Maniere De Dire Je T Aime:

, Lafayette in the Age of the American Revolution—Selected Letters and Papers, 1776–1790 Le Marquis de Lafayette, 2019-05-15 The third volume of this widely acclaimed series continues the story of Lafayette's role in the military diplomatic and political aspects of the French American alliance as seen through the letters of Lafayette and his correspondents on both sides of the Atlantic Among the recipients of Lafayette's letters are George Washington the Comte de Vergennes Samuel Adams the Comte de Rochambeau the Baron von Steuben Benjamin Franklin Alexander Hamilton Nathanael Greene and Thomas Jefferson At times Lafayette appears to be as proud ambitious and headstrong as his detractors have claimed More often he emerges as a mature and judicious leader one who carried great weight as a principal architect of French American cooperation The letters also show his ability to understand American attitudes toward military and civil authority and they indicate his realistic comprehension of strategy tactics and logistics The volume is divided into five parts each of which is introduced by a headnote summarizing Lafayette's main activities and the broader context of revolutionary events of the period It makes clear the tensions and disharmonies between the allies that developed during the months of military inaction and fiscal difficulties and gives us a rare look at the human side of the military effort at its highest levels

L'Intime épistolaire (1850-1900) Jelena Jovicic, 2010-01-08

L'Intime épistolaire 1850-1900 genre et pratique culturelle is a study of private letters by eight Nineteenth Century French authors Flaubert Zola Sand Baudelaire Maupassant Eberhardt Bashkirtseff and Edmond de Goncourt during the period of 1850 to

1900 Through in depth analyses of these intriguing documents the book demonstrates that personal correspondences cast fresh light on the concept of intimacy in Nineteenth Century French culture Since epistolary writing implies a necessary exchange between lived experience and the written word the book s intention is also to interpret letter practice as a specific textual form with its own generic expectations and constraints which are distinct from other life writing genres such as the diary the autobiography and the memoir Divided into five chapters the study begins with a short introduction to the culture of individuality The four subsequent chapters explore the poetics of epistolary writing including significant topics the various roles of the letter writer epistolary pacts and the problem of the signature Addressing a wide range of epistolary situations including daily life health money problems love travel and even suicide notes the book also offers new critical perspectives on six of the most interesting manuscript letters that have been chosen from the examined sources
