Development for Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger, Ruth Fielding, Diane J. Tedick, 2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction It brings together findings on content based teacher education from Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity materials design use of cognitive discourse functions and best practices for teacher education Responding to the growing popularity of content based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts this book promotes teacher researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers in service and the Arts, 2007      Curriculum Development in Elementary Education Archie Moss, 2019-03-21 The curriculum of elementary schools is a very important factor in the education of children Students need to understand and express themselves in a language which can be the Mother Tongue only at the elementary level Curriculum development is an important part of the education process ensuring that classes at all levels from early childhood to post secondary are best designed to help students be successful in learning the material and gaining the skills needed to continue to advance Evaluation essentially is the provision of information for the sake of facilitating decision making at various stages of curriculum development This information may pertain to the program as a complete entity or only to some of its components Evaluation also implies the selection of criteria collection and analysis of data It includes obtaining information for use in judging the worth of a programme and procedure It is a comprehensive term and transcends standardized tests covering all means of ascertaining the results of construction A curriculum framework is an organized plan or set of standards or learning outcomes that defines the content to be learned in terms of clear definable standards of what the student should know and be able to do The supporters of learner centered Curriculum give importance to individual development and they wants to organize the curriculum according to the needs and interest of learners there are fundamental differences in this approach and the subject centered design The curriculum framers for elementary schools should also associate the parents and specialists while developing the curriculum for elementary education
