Marjorie Dean Pauline Lester, 2020-02-29 Marjorie Dean's merry face looked unusually sober as she walked down the corridor beside Mary and into the locker room of the Franklin High School The two friends put on their wraps almost in silence The majority of the girl students of the big city high school had passed out some little time before Marjorie had lingered for a last talk with Miss Fielding who taught English and was the idol of the school while Mary had hung about outside the classroom to wait for her chum It seemed to Mary that the greatest sorrow of her sixteen years had come Marjorie her sworn ally and confidante was going away for good and all When six years before a brown eyed little girl of nine with long golden brown curls had moved into the house next door to the Raymonds Mary had lost no time in making her acquaintance They had begun with shy little nods and smiles which soon developed into doorstep confidences Within two weeks Mary whose eyes were very blue and whose short yellow curls reminded one of the golden petals of a daffodil had become Marjorie's adorer and slave She it was who had escorted Marjorie to the Lincoln Grammar School and seen her triumphantly through her first week there She had thrilled with unselfish pride to see how quickly the other little girls of the school had succumbed to Marjorie's charm She had felt a most delightful sense of pardonable vanity when as the year progressed Marjorie had preferred her above all the others She had clung to Mary even though Alice Lawton who rode to school every day in a shining limousine had tried her utmost to be best friends with the brown eyed little girl whose pretty face and lovable personality had soon made her the pet of the school Year after year Mary and Marjorie had lived side by side and kept their childish faith But now here they were just beginning their freshman year in Franklin High School to which they had so long looked forward and about to be separated for Marjorie s father had been made manager of the northern branch of his employer s business and Marjorie was going to live in the little city of Sanford Instead of being a freshman in dear old Franklin she was to enter the freshman class in Sanford High School where she didn t know a solitary girl and where she was sure she would be too unhappy for words Marjorie Dean, College Junior Josephine Chase,2018-09-20
