Marketing Research Steve D'Alessandro, Hume Winzar, Ben Lowe, William Zikmund, 2020-06-18 Marketing Research 5e equips students with the knowledge and skills required to successfully undertake marketing research. Combining a solid theoretical foundation with a practical step by step approach the marketing research process is explored through a learning model that is constantly reinforced throughout the text. Using local and international examples, data sets and case studies to explain traditional marketing research methods. Marketing Research also examines new theories and techniques. To reflect emerging industry practices each stage of research reporting is detailed as well as a range of presentation methodologies. For analysing data the text covers both SPSS and Excel outputs. This text is indispensable for students studying marketing research in any business or marketing course. Premium online teaching and learning tools are available on the MindTap platform. Media, 2012-06 A core text book for the CIM Qualification Doing Marketing Research Alison Lawson, Charles Hancock, 2025-03-31 Traditional research methods in marketing can be illuminating when used well but all too often their results fail to provide the depth of understanding that organisations need to anticipate market needs. Doing Marketing Research enables researchers to get greater depth and meaning from their research and organisations to make smarter strategic decisions. This unique book explains market sensing simply and practically and demonstrates how it can benefit researchers. It teaches non mainstream and alternative research methods which facilitate innovative research design and achieve deep insights into the mindsets of consumers. The methods explored in this book include sensory research using ZMET, discourse analysis, consumer ethnography, social media networks, narrative and storytelling and gamification. This second edition has been fully updated to include several new chapters covering newer methods and topics including the Delphi method, archival research, visual methods and the decolonisation of research. With a wealth of examples, diverse case studies and pedagogy such as seminar activities to aid student learning, this textbook is recommended and core reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students studying marketing research and business research methods more generally as well as marketing practitioners. Online resources include PowerPoint lecture slides Marketing Research Essentials Carl D. McDaniel, Carl McDaniel, Roger Gates, 2006 McDaniel and Gates stand out from the crowd. When it comes to putting you on the frontlines of the marketing research industry, McDaniel and Gates stand out from the crowd. These authors deliver the hottest trends, insights and advances in the field with a focus on how marketing research is practiced today. Based on their successful Marketing Research 6th Edition, this paperback text offers the same user oriented, real world focus and cutting edge content in a more streamlined format. Authors wired to the marketing research industry. Unlike many other marketing research texts, Marketing Research Essentials provides a real world view of the field from authors who are industry insiders. Together they bring more than 40 years of marketing research experience to this edition. A strong focus on how to use research McDaniel and Gates focus on using and analyzing market research results rather than actually doing the market research Real world perspective Throughout the text the authors inject a healthy dose of reality into the discussion including intriguing examples of how real companies use marketing research and war stories from the frontlines of the field New learning tools put you in the know New chapter opening Visual Checklists and chapter ending Visual Summaries help reinforce your understanding of the material Includes the student version of SPSS 13 In addition new SPSS exercises at the end of the quantitative chapters give you hands on experience Data sets for the software are available on the companion website at www.wiley.com/college/mcdaniel
