Managerial Economics and Business Strategy Michael R. Baye, Michael Baye, Jeff Prince, 2021-02-18 This book begins by teaching managers the practical utility of basic economic tools such as present value analysis supply and demand regression indifference curves isoquants production costs and the basic models of perfect competition monopoly and monopolistic competition Adopters and reviewers also praise the book for its real world examples and because it includes modern topics not contained in any other single managerial economics textbook oligopoly penetration pricing multistage and repeated games foreclosure contracting vertical and horizontal integration networks bargaining predatory pricing principal agent problems raising rivals costs adverse selection auctions screening and signaling search limit pricing and a host of other pricing strategies for firms enjoying market power This balanced coverage of traditional and modern microeconomic tools makes it appropriate for a wide variety of managerial economics classrooms An increasing number of business schools are adopting this book to replace or use alongside managerial strategy texts laden with anecdotes but lacking the microeconomic tools needed to identify and implement the business strategies that are optimal in a given situation

Cheering for Self James S. Vass Jr, James Vass Jr, 2003-05-13 This book is a study of UW men's basketball fans during the 2001 2002 season and explores their proclivity to cheering for self during basketball events The term basketball event is used rather than basketball game to make clear that everything connected to and seen heard or experienced before during and after a basketball game is included The actual game itself is only part of the basketball event An undercurrent runs throughout this participant observation mini ethnography dealing with access and the relative quality of that access to basketball events being affected by one's age class race and gender The prominent role of advertising in shaping basketball events and helping to construct fans as consumers of products both commercial and institutional during the process of cheering for self is central to this idea Cheering for self is the activity engaged in by individual fans after they find things to identify or connect with through personal investment Fans cheer for self indirectly Fans cheer for the team that they identify with Through the process of cheering for self while attending the basketball event people are taught how to become fans to consume a UW product the basketball event and to consume advertisers products People have a tendency to spend their entire life trying to impress others

Public Finance Laurence Seidman, 2008-09-26 Public Finance is an approachable text designed with students in mind The 13 chapters are intentionally written to be taught easily in one semester without skipping material or losing any information Public Finance contains all the necessary tools and core chapters that are integral to any Public Finance course in a clear and easy to read format The concise sections and lucid examples are engaging for students without being dense or tedious This First Edition text incorporates research from across the discipline and provides empirical tie ins to the real world The author also covers special topic chapters that define public finance like education social security and healthcare
