My Daddy Yusuph Koni, 2021-08-18 Do fathers love their children more than the mothers do Why or why not Yusuph is Tanzania Congolese boy who born and grow in Tanzania with unaware of his mother's Tecla and father's Joseph love for him because of some complicated situation As Yusuph grew up he longed to live with his family but at the end he received bad news of Joseph's death I literally can't remember what was my dad looks like or his voice or anything about him but there are still some missing pieces of him deep down inside me that I brought into my countless dreams of him Father will say they love their children just as much as their Mothers but it looks different on the outside He buried him in his mind and transform almost every aspect of his life he decided to pursue his new dream of not letting his children go through the life he went through Yusuph and Samir were selected by the college to study abroad Father tend to love their children in the way they perceive is the best but mother love their children in the way they can best perceive it So from children's perspective the father's love may seem to be less than the mothers Samir explore Yusuph's life situation to accomplish writing his own novel He's committed to reading as many novels as he can hoping that one day he'll find something to write about in his novel but still I wish I could tell my life story so he could write something THE BEGINNING OF NOVEL WITHIN A NOVEL Later on Yusuph find out that before Joseph's death he left special love message for him about his stepsister Clementine who live in DRC Congo It is very difficult for Yusuph to go meet his step sister because he want to spend most of his time with his girlfriend Naomi for his future family As time goes by pain of losing Joseph never leaves Yusuph The footprints our loved ones leave on our souls are permanent Never to be filled with another Never forgotten They live on in our memories and in our hearts The importance of fatherhood extend beyond a provider Keep that in mind Yusuph couldn't deal with the future while he didn't clean all of his past memory Now we're all together and we can't shake hands We can't kiss Hugging each other is a test for us Having sex is also a problem I don't think if we will get married Bearing children is a dream Mother's love is mild while father's love is shape They are different but neither is dispensable Instead to go study abroad he go to meet Clementine because she is the one who will restore all the love he had for Joseph without care if there a civil war Yusuph's heart beat thump thump His finger is taking up trigger slack He holds off as Justine Rebel continues to drag Clementine backward into the woods So yeah I think fathers love their children but they way they express it can sometimes be misunderstood or undervalued
