Collection of the British Museum Robert Francis Harper,1896 Handbook of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Joseph D. Noshpitz,1997

Renowned authorities in their respective fields present the most up to date coverage of all that is known regarding child and adolescent psychiatry Presented developmentally prominent contributors have produced a body of knowledge that describes what children are what they need what hurts and helps them Volume 1 deals with infants and preschoolers Volume 2 with grade school children Volume 3 deals with adolescence and Volume 4 with varieties of development Volume 5 contains information on assessing diagnosing and treatment planning for the range of psychiatric and psychologic problems children and adolescents may experience during their development Volume 6 introduces the basic science of child and adolescent psychiatry and presents a myriad of treatment options available to psychiatrists Volume 7 contains an overview of the history of the field of child psychiatry and examines contemporary issues facing child and adolescent psychiatrists United States Government Publications ,1890 Idealism Transformed Anne Wood,1985-08-01 John Harold Putman inspector of Ottawa public schools between 1910 and 1937 was a leading progressive educator At that time the progressive education movement in Canada was composed of two major intellectual strands neo Hegelian idealism and new liberalism By tracing the thought and practices of this eminent educator Wood shows how the neo Hegelian philosophy of the late nineteenth century was transformed by its own logic and social imperatives into what seems to be its opposite Idealism ironically ultimately comes to resemble pragmatism Elected to the Ottawa City Council in 1905 Putman allied himself with progressive urban reformers seeking solutions to urban chaos ward patronage and inefficient city government As inspector of public schools he brought his reformist outlook to bear on providing for the discontented adolescent in the school and on implementing an efficient school system Two schools established by Putman provided a diversified program for the adolescent they led however not to the self realization of the individual but to social unification and streaming for vocational roles At the end of World War I the Ottawa public schools under Putman were judged the most efficient and progressive of any in Canada But following the tenets of new liberalism and of urban school reformers in the United States Putman achieved this goal by creating more bureaucratic practices and more formalized procedures which again contradicted the idealist s moral humanistic intent In the postwar period Putman extended the efficiency principle to his survey of schools in British Columbia and his campaigns for junior high schools and county boards in Ontario By the end of the 1930S the author contends the progressive educator had effectively transformed the use of schooling for life adjustment not for intellectual purposes A German Buddhist (Oberpräsidialrat Theodor Schultze) Arthur Pfungst, 1902
